Order of Public Worship

NOTE.—The Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, have adopted a Common Order of Worship as given below.

[PARTS IN BRACKETS MAY BE OMITTED.]

Let all our services begin exactly at the time appointed, and let all our people kneel in silent prayer on entering the sanctuary.

[I. VOLUNTARY, instrumental or vocal.]

II. SINGING FROM THE COMMON HYMNAL,

the people standing.

[III. THE APOSTLES' CREED, recited by all, still standing.]

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

IV. PRAYER, concluding with the Lord's Prayer, repeated audibly by all, both minister and people kneeling.

[V. ANTHEM OR VOLUNTARY.]

VI. LESSON FROM THE OLD TESTAMENT,

which, if from the Psalms, may be read responsively.*

[VII. THE GLORIA PATRI.]

Glo - ry be to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost; As it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, and ev - er shall be, world without end. A - men, A - men.

VIII. LESSON FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT.

IX. NOTICES, FOLLOWED BY COLLECTION;

during or after which an offertory may be rendered.

X. SINGING FROM THE COMMON HYMNAL,

the people standing.

XI. THE SERMON.

XII. PRAYER, the people kneeling. †

XIII. SINGING FROM THE COMMON HYMNAL,

the people standing. ‡

XIV. DOXOLOGY AND THE APOSTOLIC BENEDICTION

(2 Cor. 13. 14).

* In the afternoon or evening the Lesson from the Old Testament may be omitted.

† The order of prayer and singing after sermon may be reversed.

‡ An invitation to come to Christ or to unite with the Church should be given when this hymn is announced.

Preface

THIS Hymnal is the result of the labors of a joint Commission of twenty-two ministers and laymen appointed in equal numbers by the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; the double purpose being to provide a worthy manual of song for use in the public and private worship of Almighty God, and to testify to the world the essential unity of the two great branches of Episcopal Methodism.

The fruit of their toil we now lay before the churches with confidence and joy: with confidence because we feel warranted in saying that the book is an admirable compilation of sacred lyrics; and with joy because we trust that for many long years it will prove to be a visible and potent bond of union among all our people.

We gladly note that the hymns of the Wesleys are given the prominence which justly belongs to them in any collection to be used by Methodists. But the book will be found to contain also the choicest work of the other hymn writers of the eighteenth century, namely, Doddridge, Watts, Cowper, Newton, Montgomery, and a very considerable number of new hymns selected after a wide examination of the body of religious verse produced during the last seventy-five years. The hymns admitted have been selected from the ancient and modern treasuries of religious poetry. They are the expression of sound doctrine and healthful Christian experience, and it is believed will greatly enrich our worship and bring us into closer fellowship with believers in all lands and in all ages.

Such verbal changes as have been made in the hymns are in most cases a return to the original and preferable forms. Some stanzas have been wholly excluded on the ground that they contain imagery offensive to modern taste, and others have been omitted to secure desirable brevity. The Commission did not venture to make arbitrary or capricious alterations.

In only a very few cases have hymns been divorced from the tunes to which long use has wedded them. For some familiar hymns alternate tunes have been provided, either with a view to please both branches of the church or to secure a better musical expression for the words than is given by the tune now familiar. Many new tunes by the more eminent modern composers of church music have been introduced. Much care has been given to the selection of these tunes, which we are assured will be found to be devotional in spirit, well fitted to the hymns to which they are set, and adapted to use by the great congregation.

And now, praying that this Hymnal, prepared by a joint Commission whose brotherly harmony was never once broken and whose final meeting was a Pentecost, may be abundantly blessed of God to the edification of believing souls and to the glory of his name, we commend it to our churches, and we earnestly hope that it may everywhere supplant those unauthorized publications which often teach what organized Methodism does not hold, and which, by excluding the nobler music of the earlier and later days, prevent the growth of a true musical taste.

The glo - ries of my God and King, The tri - umphs of his grace! A - MEN.

The second system of musical notation for the hymn 'AZMON C. M.' It consists of a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/2. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

2 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honors of thy name.

3 Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

4 He breaks the power of canceled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;

His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.

5 He speaks, and, listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice;
The humble poor believe.

6 Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

2 Come, thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success:
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend!

3 Come, Holy Comforter, Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour:

Thou who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power!

4 To the great One and Three, Eternal praises be Hence, evermore:
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore!

1. The God of Abraham praise, Who reigns enthroned above; Ancient of ever - last-ing days, And God of love; Je-ho-vah, great I AM, By earth and heav'n confessed;

I bow and bless the sa - cred name, For - ev - er blest. A-MEN.

2 The God of Abraham praise,
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand:
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power;
And him my only portion make,
My shield and tower.

3 He by himself hath sworn.
I on his oath depend;
I shall, on eagles' wings upborne,
To heaven ascend;
I shall behold his face,
I shall his power adore,
And sing the wonders of his grace
For evermore.

4 The goodly land I see,
With peace and plenty blest;
A land of sacred liberty,
And endless rest.

There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound;
And trees of life forever grow,
With mercy crowned.

5 Before the great Three-One
They all exulting stand,
And tell the wonders he hath done
Through all their land:
The listening spheres attend,
And swell the growing fame;
And sing, in songs which never end,
The wondrous name.

6 The whole triumphant host Give thanks to God on high;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,"
They ever cry:
Hail, Abraham's God and mine!—
I join the heavenly lays,—
All might and majesty are thine,
And endless praise.

Adoration and Praise

The musical score is written in a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). It consists of two systems. The first system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (bass clef). The vocal line begins with a whole rest, followed by the lyrics: "men, Be hon - or, might; all by him won;". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics: "Glo - ry and praise! A - men, A - men! A - MEN." and concludes with a double bar line. The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

2 Deep in the prophets' sacred page,
 Grand in the poets' wingèd word,
 Slowly in type, from age to age,
 Nations beheld their coming Lord;
 Till through the deep Judean night
 Rang out the song, "Good will to men!"
 Hymned by the firstborn sons of light,
 Re-echoed now, "Good will!" Amen!

3 That life of truth, those deeds of love,
 That death of pain, 'mid hate and scorn;
 These all are past, and now above, [thorn.
 He reigns our King! once crowned with "Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;"
 So sang his hosts, unheard by men;
 "Lift up your heads, for you he waits."
 "We lift them up! Amen, Amen!"

4 Nations afar in ignorance deep;
 Isles of the sea, where darkness lay;
 These hear his voice, they wake from sleep,
 And throng with joy the upward way.
 They 'cry with us, "Send forth thy light,"
 O Lamb, once slain for sinful men;
 Burst Satan's bonds, O God of might;
 Set all men free! Amen, Amen!

5 Sing to the Lord a glorious song,
 Sing to his name, his love forth tell;
 Sing on, heaven's hosts, his praise prolong;
 Sing, ye who now on earth do dwell;
 Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain, [men.
 From angels, praise; and thanks from Worthy the Lamb, enthroned to reign, Glory and power! Amen, Amen!

2 Here I raise mine Ebenezer;
 Hither by thy help I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home.
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He, to rescue me from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood.

3 O to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee:
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
 Prone to leave the God I love;
 Here's my heart, O take and seal it;
 Seal it for thy courts above.

- 2 Praise ye Jehovah! for his loving-kindness,
 And all the tender mercy he hath shown;
 Praise him who pardons all our sin and blindness,
 And calls us sons, and takes us for his own.
- 3 Praise ye Jehovah! source of all our blessings;
 Before his gifts earth's richest boons wax dim;
 Resting in him, his peace and joy possessing,
 All things are ours, for we have all in him.

Join in a song with sweet ac - cord, While ye sur - round his throne. A - MEN.

2 Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God,
But servants of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

3 The God that rules on high,
That all the earth surveys,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And calms the roaring seas;

4 This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love;
He will send down his heavenly powers,
To carry us above.

5 There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;

There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in:

6 Yea, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.

7 The men of grace have found Glory begun below;
Celestial fruit on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.

 May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let earth, and sea, and sky,

Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness
Where is death's sting? where, grave and worm,

 Through all these spacious works of thine.

3 Still restless nature dies and grows; To sing thy glory or thy grace?
 From change to change the creatures run: Beneath thy feet we lie afar, Thy being no succession knows, And see but shadows of thy face.
 And all thy vast designs are one.

4 A glance of thine runs through the globe, Who can behold the blazing light?
 Rules the bright worlds, and moves their frame; Who can approach consuming flame?
 None but thy wisdom knows thy might;
 None but thy word can speak thy name.

3 Through all his mighty works
 Amazing wisdom shines;
 Confounds the powers of hell,
 And all their dark designs;
 4 And will this sovereign King
 Of glory condescend,
 And will he write his name,

From an - gels bend - ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold;

"Peace on the earth, good will to men, From heaven's all - gra - cious King:" The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing. A - MEN.

|---|--|
| 2 Still through the cloven skies they come
 With peaceful wings unfurled,
 And still their heavenly music floats
 O'er all the weary world;
 Above its sad and lowly plains
 They bend on hovering wing,
 And ever o'er its Babel sounds
 The blessed angels sing. | 4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
 Whose forms are bending low,
 Who toil along the climbing way
 With painful steps and slow,
 Look now! for glad and golden hours
 Come swiftly on the wing:
 O rest beside the weary road,
 And hear the angels sing! |
| 3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
 The world hath suffered long;
 Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
 Two thousand years of wrong;
 And man, at war with man, hears not
 The love song which they bring:
 O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
 And hear the angels sing! | 5 For lo! the days are hastening on
 By prophet-bards foretold,
 When with the ever-circling years
 Comes round the age of gold;
 When peace shall over all the earth
 Its ancient splendors fling,
 And the whole world send back the song
 Which now the angels sing. |

1. Hark! the her-ald an-gels sing, "Glo-ry to the newborn King; Peace on earth, and mer-cy mild; God and sin-ners rec-on-ciled." Joy-ful, all ye na-tions, rise, Join the tri-umph of the skies; With an-gel-ic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Beth-le-hem."

Hark! the her-ald an-gels sing, "Glo-ry to the new-born King." A-MEN.

- 2 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
 Christ, the everlasting Lord:
 Late in time behold him come,
 Offspring of a virgin's womb.
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
 Hail the incarnate Deity!
 Pleased as man with men to appear,
 Jesus our Immanuel here.
 Hark! the herald angels sing,
 "Glory to the newborn King."
- 3 Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
 Hail the Sun of righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,
 Risen with healing in his wings:
 Mild he lays his glory by,

Born that man no more may die;
 Born to raise the sons of earth;
 Born to give them second birth.
 Hark! the herald angels sing,
 "Glory to the newborn King."

- 4 Come, Desire of nations, come!
 Fix in us thy humble home:
 Rise, the woman's conquering seed,
 Bruise in us the serpent's head;
 Adam's likeness now efface,
 Stamp thine image in its place:
 Second Adam from above,
 Reinstate us in thy love.
 Hark! the herald angels sing,
 "Glory to the newborn King."

2 "Fear not!" said he; for mighty dread

"Glad tidings of great joy I bring,
To you and all mankind.

3 "To you, in David's town, this day
Is born, of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

4 "The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,

All meanly wrapped in swathing-bands,
And in a manger laid."

5 Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God on high,
Who thus addressed their song:

6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace:

Good will henceforth from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease!"

2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus,
Refuge of the troubled soul.
Surely, none can feel like thee,
Weeping One of Bethany!

3 Jesus wept! and still in glory,
He can mark each mourner's tear;
Loving to retrace the story
Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany.

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
He the same doth ever prove.
Thou art all in all to me,
Loving One of Bethany!

And he who would the Fa - ther seek, Must seek him, Lord, by thee. A - MEN.

2 Thou art the Truth: — thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,

Proclaims thy conquering arm;

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life;

He sees my wants, al - lays my fears, And counts and treasures up my tears. A - MEN.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do,
Still He, who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

4 If vexing thoughts within me rise,
And, sore dismayed, my spirit dies,
Still He, who once vouchsafed to bear
The sickening anguish of despair,
Shall sweetly soothe, shall gently dry,
The throbbing heart, the streaming eye.

3 If wounded love my bosom swell,
Deceived by those I prized too well,
He shall his pitying aid bestow,
Who felt on earth severer woe, —
At once betrayed, denied, or fled,
By those who shared his daily bread.

5 When, sorrowing, o'er some stone I bend
Which covers what was once a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me for a little while, —
Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed,
For thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

6 And O, when I have safely past
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed, for thou hast died,
Then point to realms of cloudless day
And wipe the latest tear away.

 All that eye has yet perceived!
 Holiest hearts for ages pleading,

 Christ has passed the eternal gates.

Patriarchs from the distant ages,
 Saints all longing for their heaven,
 Prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages,
 All await the glory given.

4 Life eternal! O what wonders Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
 When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
 Saints shall stand before the throne!
 O to enter that bright portal,
 See that glowing firmament,
 Know, with thee, O God immortal,

No feet but thine have trod
The serpent down:
Blow the full trumpets, blow,
Wider yon portals throw,
Saviour, triumphant, go,
And take thy crown!

2 There the pompous triumph waits:
Lift your heads, eternal gates;

Still he loves the earth he leaves;
Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls mankind his own.

3 Circled round with angel powers,
Their triumphant Lord and ours,
Conqueror over death and sin,
Take the King of glory in!

2 'Tis the spring of souls to-day:
Christ hath burst his prison,
From the frost and gloom of death
Light and life have risen.
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying

Thanks and praise undying.

3 Now the queen of seasons, bright
With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;

Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who, with true affection,
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection!

4 "Hallelujah!" now we cry
To our King Immortal,
Who, triumphant, burst the bars
Of the tomb's dark portal;
"Hallelujah!" with the Son,
God the Father praising;
"Hallelujah!" yet again
To the Spirit raising.

2 Come as the light: to us reveal
Our sinfulness and woe;
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.

3 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts,
Like sacrificial flame;
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's name.

4 Come as the wind, with rushing sound,
With pentecostal grace;
And make the great salvation known
Wide as the human race.

5 Come as the dove, and spread thy wings,
The wings of peaceful love;
And let thy church on earth become Blest as thy church above.

FERDINAND H. HIMMEL

1. Ho - ly Ghost, dis - pel our sad - ness; Pierce the clouds of na - ture's night;

The first system of musical notation consists of a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 6/8. The vocal line begins with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, Bb4, and C5, then a quarter rest, and continues with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support with chords and moving bass lines.

Come, thou Source of joy and glad - ness, Breathe thy life, and spread thy light:

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The vocal line has a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, Bb4, and C5, then a quarter rest, and continues with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving bass lines.

From the height which knows no meas - ure, As a gra - cious shower de - scend,

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The vocal line has a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, Bb4, and C5, then a quarter rest, and continues with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving bass lines.

Bring - ing down the rich - est treas - ure Man can wish, or God can send. A - MEN.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The vocal line has a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, Bb4, and C5, then a quarter rest, and continues with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving bass lines, ending with a final chord.

2 Author of the new creation,
Come with unction and with power:
Make our hearts thy habitation;
On our souls thy graces shower:
Hear, O hear our supplication, Blessèd Spirit, God of peace!
Rest upon this congregation,
With the fullness of thy grace.

4 My message as from God receive;
Ye all may come to Christ and live:
O let his love your hearts constrain,
Nor suffer him to die in vain.

5 See him set forth before your eyes,
That precious, bleeding sacrifice!
His offered benefits embrace,
And freely now be saved by grace.

2 Thou who, houseless, sole, forlorn,
Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary pilgrim, hither haste.

Ye, by fiercer anguish torn,
In remorse for guilt who mourn;

3 Ye who, tossed on beds of pain,
Seek for ease, but seek in vain;

4 Hither come, for here is found Balm that flows for every wound,
Peace that ever shall endure,
Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

Sinners, obey your Maker's call;
Return, ye weary wanderers, home,
And find my grace is free for all.

Money ye need not bring, nor price,
Ye laboring, burdened, sin-sick souls.

3 See from the rock a fountain rise!
For you in healing streams it rolls;

4 Nothing ye in exchange shall give;
Leave all you have and are behind;
Frankly the gift of God receive;
Pardon and peace in Jesus find.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

3 Dear dying Lamb! thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

2 Each step we take but gathers strength
For further progress, till at length,
With ease the highest steeps we gain,
And count the mountain but a plain.

3 Who watch, and pray, and work each hour
Receive new life and added power,

A power fresh victories to win
Over the world, and self, and sin.

4 Help us, O Lord, that we may grow
In grace as thou dost grace bestow;
And still thy richer gifts repeat
Till grace in glory is complete.

Composer Unknown

1. Take my life, and let it be Con-se-cra-ted, Lord, to thee; Take my moments and my days;

Let them flow in cease-less praise; Take my hands, and let them move At the im-pulse of thy love; Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beau-ti-ful for thee. A-MEN.

2 Take my voice, and let me sing,
Always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from thee.
Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as thou shalt choose.

3 Take my will, and make it thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is thine own;
It shall be thy royal throne.
Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for thee.

- 2 At the blest mercy seat,
Pleading for me,
My feeble faith looks up,
Jesus, to thee;
Help me the cross to bear,
Thy wondrous love declare,
Some song to raise, or prayer,
Something for thee.
- 3 Give me a faithful heart,
Likeness to thee,
That each departing day
Henceforth may see

Some work of love begun,
Some deed of kindness done,
Some wanderer sought and won,
Something for thee.

- 4 All that I am and have,
Thy gifts so free,
In joy, in grief, through life,
Dear Lord, for thee!
And when thy face I see,
My ransomed soul shall be,
Through all eternity,
Something for thee.

ARTHUR H. MANN

1 O Je-sus, I have prom-ised To serve thee to the end; Be thou for-ev-er near me,

My Mas-ter and my Friend: I shall not fear the bat-tle If thou art by my side,

Nor wan-der from the path-way If thou wilt be my guide. A-MEN.

2 O let me feel thee near me;
 The world is ever near;
 I see the sights that dazzle,
 The tempting sounds I hear:
 My foes are ever near me,
 Around me and within;
 But, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
 And shield my soul from sin.

3 O Jesus, thou hast promised
 To all who follow thee,
 That where thou art in glory
 There shall thy servant be;
 And, Jesus, I have promised
 To serve thee to the end;
 O give me grace to follow,
 My Master and my Friend.

REFRAIN

I shall full sal-va-tion find. I am trust-ing, Lord, in thee, Blest Lamb of Cal-va-ry;
 Hum-bly at thy cross I bow, Save me, Je-sus, save me now. A-MEN.

2 Long my heart has sighed for thee,
 Long has evil reigned within;
 Jesus sweetly speaks to me,
 "I will cleanse you from all sin."

4 In thy promises I trust,
 Now I feel the blood applied,
 I am prostrate in the dust,
 I with Christ am crucified.

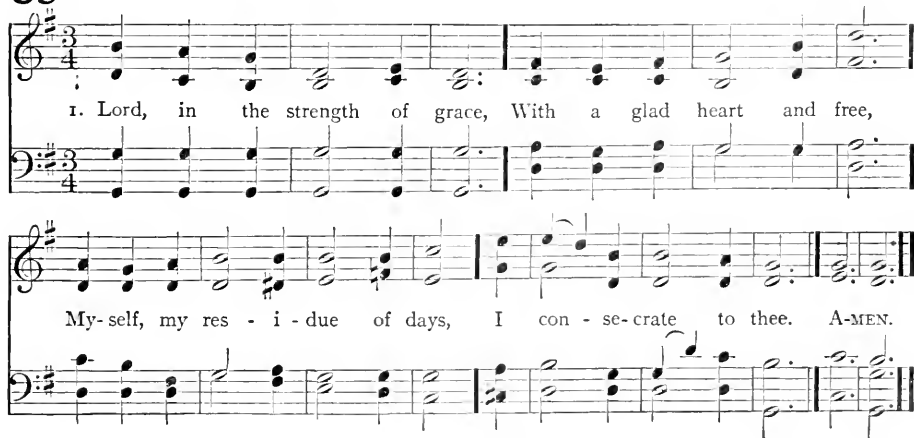

3 Here I give my all to thee,
 Friends, and time, and earthly store;
 Soul and body thine to be,
 Wholly thine for evermore.

5 Jesus comes! he fills my soul!
 Perfected in him I am;
 I am every whit made whole:
 Glory, glory to the Lamb!

2 I could not do without thee,

I have no strength or goodness,

But thou, belovèd Saviour,

And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on thee.

3 I could not do without thee,
For O, the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song:

How could I do without thee?
I do not know the way;
Thou knowest and thou leadest,
And wilt not let me stray.

4 I could not do without thee;
No other friend can read
The spirit's strange, deep longings, Interpreting its need:
No human heart could enter
Each dim recess of mine,
And soothe and hush and calm it,
O blessèd Lord, like thine.

382 DIADEMATA S. M. D.

GEORGE J. ELVEY

1. Sol - diers of Christ, a - rise, And put your ar - mor on,

Strong in the strength which God sup - plies Through his e - ter - nal Son ;

Strong in the Lord of hosts, And in his might - y power,

Who in the strength of Je - sus trusts Is more than con - quer - or. A - MEN.

2 Stand, then, in his great might,
 With all his strength endued;
 But take, to arm you for the fight,
 The panoply of God:
 That, having all things done,
 And all your conflicts passed,
 Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
 And stand entire at last.

3 From strength to strength go on,
 Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
 Tread all the powers of darkness down,
 And win the well-fought day:
 Still let the Spirit cry,
 In all his soldiers, "Come,"
 Till Christ the Lord descend from high,
 And take the conquerors home.

1. Onward, Christian sol - diers! March - ing as to war, With the cross of Je - sus

Go - ing on be - fore. Christ, the roy - al Mas - ter, Leads a - gainst the foe;

REFRAIN
For - ward in - to bat - tle, See, his ban - ners go! Onward, Christian sol - diers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Je - sus Go - ing on be - fore. A - MEN.

- 2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.
- 3 Like a mighty army
Moves the church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.

- 4 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.
- 5 Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song;
Glory, laud, and honor
Unto Christ the King,
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.

1. Forward! be our watch-word, Steps and voi-ces joined; Seek the things before us,

Not a look be-hind: Burns the fi-ery pil-lar At our ar-my's head;

Who shall dream of shrink-ing, By our Cap-tain led? Forward through the des-ert,

Through the toil and fight: Jor-dan flows be-fore us, Zi-on beams with light! A-MEN.

2 Forward! flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth,
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth:
Sick, they ask for healing;
Blind, they grope for day;
Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.
Forward, out of error,
Leave behind the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light!

3 Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love him
One day to be shared:
Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;

Nor of these hath uttered
Thought or speech a word:
Forward, marching eastward
Where the heaven is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight!

4 Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold;
Flows the gladdening river Shedding joys untold;
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might:
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

Put on the gospel armor,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus!

This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:

And martyr throngs enrolled.

4 In God's whole armor strong,
Front hell's embattled powers:
The warfare may be sharp and long,
The victory must be ours.

2 O God! who workest hitherto,
Working in all we see,
Fain would we be, and bear, and do,
As best it pleaseth thee.
Where'er thou sendest we will go,
Nor any question ask,
And what thou biddest we will do,
Whatever be the task.

3 Our skill of hand, and strength of limb,
Are not our own, but thine;
We link them to the work of Him
Who made all life divine!
Our brother-friend, thy holy Son,
Shared all our lot and strife;
And nobly will our work be done,
If molded by his life.

- 2 Be thou my strength, be thou my way;
Protect me through my life's short day:
In all my acts may wisdom guide,
And keep me, Saviour, near thy side.
- 3 In fierce temptation's darkest hour,
Save me from sin and Satan's power;
- 4 My suffering time shall soon be o'er;
Then shall I sigh and weep no more;
My ransomed soul shall soar away,
To sing thy praise in endless day.

His seem - ing tri - umph o'er God's saints Lasts but a lit - tle hour. A - MEN.

2 Fear not, be strong! your cause belongs
To him who can avenge your wrongs;
Leave all to him, your Lord:
Though hidden yet from mortal eyes,
Salvation shall for you arise;
He girdeth on his sword!

3 As true as God's own promise stands,
Not earth nor hell with all their bands
Against us shall prevail;
The Lord shall mock them from his throne;
God is with us; we are his own;
Our victory cannot fail!

4 Amen, Lord Jesus, grant our prayer!
Great Captain, now thine arm make bare;
Thy church with strength defend;
So shall thy saints and martyrs raise
A joyful chorus to thy praise,
Through ages without end.

2 Not to the last! Thy word hath said,
Could we but read aright,
"Poor pilgrim, lift in hope thy head,

3 Though earthborn shadows now may Thy thorny path awhile, [shroud
God's blessed word can part each cloud,
And bid the sunshine smile.

5 When tempest clouds are dark on high,
His bow of love and peace
Shines sweetly in the vaulted sky,
A pledge that storms shall cease.

4 Only believe, in living faith,
His love and power divine;

6 Hold on thy way, with hope unchilled,

And thou shalt own his word fulfilled,
"At eve it shall be light."

4 Wherever in the world I am,
In whatsoever estate,
I have a fellowship with hearts,
To keep and cultivate;
A work of lowly love to do
For Him on whom I wait.

5 I ask thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life
While keeping at thy side;
Content to fill a little space,
If thou be glorified.

6 And if some things I do not ask Among my blessings be,
I'd have my spirit filled the more
With grateful love to thee;
More careful, not to serve thee much,
But please thee perfectly.

But strengthen and sustain.

And so beside the silent sea

Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

500 SPANISH HYMN 78. D.

Spanish Melody

1. Sav - iour, when, in dust, to thee Low we bend th' a - dor - ing knee;

When, re - pent - ant, to the skies Scarce we lift our weep - ing eyes;

O by all thy pains and woe Suf - fered once for man be - low,

Bend - ing from thy throne on high, Hear our sol - emn lit - a - ny! A - MEN.

2 By thy helpless infant years;
By thy life of want and tears;
By thy days of sore distress,
In the savage wilderness;
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power;
Turn, O turn a favoring eye,
Hear our solemn litany!

3 By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode;
By the anguished sigh that told Treachery lurked within thy fold;
From thy seat above the sky,
Hear our solemn litany!

Watchfulness and Prayer

4 By thine hour of dire despair;
By thine agony of prayer;
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn litany!

5 By thy deep, expiring groan;
By the sad sepulchral stone;
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;
O from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty, reascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn litany!

1. My God, is an - y hour so sweet, From blush of morn to eve - ning star,

As that which calls me to thy feet, The hour of prayer? A - MEN.

2 Blest is that tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that solemn hour of eve,
When, on the wings of prayer upborne,
The world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;

What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind.

5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

6 Lord, till I reach that blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be,
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to thee.

- 2 In weal, that while our lips confess
The Lord who gives, we may Remember with an humble thought
The Lord who takes away;
- 3 In woe, that while to drowning tears
Our hearts their joys resign,
We may remember who can turn Such water into wine;
- 4 By hours of day, that when our feet
O'er hill and valley run,

- We still may think the light of truth
More welcome than the sun;
- 5 By hours of night, that when the air
Its dew and shadow yields,
We still may hear the voice of God

While flesh and soul agree;
And when our flesh is only dust,
Abide our souls with thee.

*From Mendelssohn

2 When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above;
When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love;
When the proud man, in his pride,
Stoops to seek thy face;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To thy throne of grace:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling place on high.

3 When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to thee:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling place on high.

4 When the man of toil and care
In the city crowd;
When the shepherd on the moor
Names the name of God:
When the learnèd and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessèd name:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling place on high.

5 When the child, with grave fresh lip,
Youth or maiden fair;
When the aged, weak and gray,
Seek thy face in prayer;
When the widow weeps to thee,
Sad and lone and low;
When the orphan brings to thee
All his orphan-woe;
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling place on high.

But confident in self-despair;
Speak to my heart, in blessing speak,
Be conquered by my instant prayer:

2 Dost thou ask me who I am?
Ah! my Lord, thou know'st my name;

That poor rebel, Lord, was I.

4 Once a sinner, near despair,
Sought thy mercy seat by prayer;
Mercy heard, and set him free:
Lord, that mercy came to me.

5 Many days have passed since then,
Many changes I have seen;
Yet have been upheld till now;
Who could hold me up but thou?

6 Thou hast helped in every need;
This emboldens me to plead:
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last?

Speak softly to my heart.

4 With thee when day is done,
And evening calms the mind;

The setting as the rising sun
With thee my heart would find.

5 With thee when darkness brings
The signal of repose,
Calm in the shadow of thy wings,
Mine eyelids I would close.

6 With thee, in thee, by faith Abiding, I would be;
By day, by night, in life, in death,
I would be still with thee.

1. Thy way, not mine, O Lord, How-ev-er dark it be! Lead me by thine own hand;

Choose thou the path for me. I dare not choose my lot; I would not if I might;

Choose thou for me, my God, So shall I walk a-right. A-MEN.

As best to thee may seem;
Choose thou my good and ill.
- 3 Choose thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.
Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small;
Be thou my guide, my strength,
My wisdom, and my all.

530 MEDITATION 11S. 8S.

FREEMAN LEWIS. ARR. by HUBERT P. MAIN

I. O Thou, in whose presence my soul takes de-light, On whom in af - flic - tion I call,

My com-fort by day, and my song in the night, My hope, my sal - va - tion, my all! A - MEN.

- 2 Where dost thou, dear Shepherd, resort with thy sheep,
 To feed them in pastures of love?
 Say, why in the valley of death should I weep,
 Or alone in this wilderness rove?
- 3 O why should I wander an alien from thee,
 Or cry in the desert for bread?
 Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see,
 And smile at the tears I have shed.
- 4 Restore, my dear Saviour, the light of thy face;
 Thy soul-cheering comfort impart;
 And let the sweet tokens of pardoning grace
 Bring joy to my desolate heart.
- 5 He looks! and ten thousands of angels rejoice,
 And myriads wait for his word;
 He speaks! and eternity, filled with his voice,
 Re-echoes the praise of the Lord.

2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice;
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.

3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind:

While blest with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4 Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky,
Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
Or take me to thee up on high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

And with him bear a part!
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,

 There God, our King and portion,
 In fullness of his grace,
 Shall we behold forever,
 And worship face to face.

5 O sweet and blessed country,
 The home of God's elect!

1. The Homeland! O the Homeland! The land of souls freeborn! No gloomy night is known there,

But aye the fade-less morn: I'm sigh-ing for that coun - try, My heart is ach-ing here;

There is no pain in the Home-land To which I'm draw-ing near. A - MEN.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland,
With angels bright and fair;
No sinful thing nor evil,
Can ever enter there;
The music of the ransomed
Is ringing in my ears,
And when I think of the Homeland,
My eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland
Are waiting me to come
Where neither death nor sorrow
Invades their holy home:
O dear, dear native country!
O rest and peace above!
Christ bring us all to the Homeland
Of his eternal love.

3 Christian! dost thou hear them,
How they speak thee fair?
"Always fast and vigil?
Always watch and prayer?"

Christian! answer boldly:
"While I breathe I pray!"
Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.

Which flames devour, or waves o'erflow,
Be mine the happier lot to own

 In the bosom of the deep,
 Where the skies forever smile
 And the oppressed forever weep:
 O'er their gloomy night of care
 Pour the living light of heaven;
 Chase away their dark despair,
 Bid them hope to be forgiven!

3 Where the golden gates of day
 Open on the palmy East,
 Wide the bleeding cross display,
 Spread the gospel's richest feast:
 Bear the tidings round the ball,
 Visit every soil and sea:
 Preach the cross of Christ to all,
 Jesus' love is full and free!

1. See how great a flame as-pires, Kin-dled by a spark of grace!

To bring fire on earth he came; Kin-dled in some hearts it is:

O that all might catch the flame, All par-take the glo-rious bliss! A-MEN.

2 When he first the work begun,
 Small and feeble was his day:
 Now the word doth swiftly run;
 Now it wins its widening way:
 More and more it spreads and grows,
 Ever mighty to prevail;
 Sin's strongholds it now o'erthrows,
 Shakes the trembling gates of hell.

3 Saw ye not the cloud arise,
 Little as a human hand?
 Now it spreads along the skies,
 Hangs o'er all the thirsty land;
 Lo! the promise of a shower
 Drops already from above;
 But the Lord will shortly pour
 All the spirit of his love.

2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,

A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That make us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

2 Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife;
Thou didst thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

4 Ever be thou our guide,
Our shepherd, and our pride,
Our staff and song;
Jesus, thou Christ of God,
By thy perennial word
Lead us where thou hast trod,
Make our faith strong.

3 Thou art the great High Priest;
Thou hast prepared the feast
Of heavenly love;
While in our mortal pain
None calls on thee in vain;
Help thou dost not disdain,
Help from above.

5 So now, and till we die,
Sound we thy praises high,
And joyful sing;
Infants, and the glad throng
Who to thy church belong,
Unite to swell the song
To Christ our King.

2 Yes, he will; for all things bright
Are most precious in his sight,
And he loves to see Children come with flowers for him,
Whom the flaming seraphim
Worship ceaselessly.

3 Yes, he will; for children's love
Makes this world like heaven above,
Where no evil reigns,
And where all unite to bring Purest offerings, and sing
Love's unending strains.

4 Yes, he will; for hearts that turn
To the sick and poor, and learn How to make them glad,
Shine like beacons on the strand
Of the far-off, happy land,
To the lost and sad.

fathers died, Land of the pilgrims' pride, From ev - ery mountain side Let freedom ring! A - MEN.

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:

Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

1 God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do thou our country save
By thy great might!

2 For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On him we wait:
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,
God save the State!

Wholesome grain and pure may be.

Give his angels charge at last

But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

Chants and Occasional Pieces

DIRECTIONS FOR CHANTING

1 CHANTS consist of two distinct divisions: one portion is recited, the other portion is sung.

2 The words from the commencement of each verse and half verse up to the accented syllable, which is printed in italics, are called the Recitation, and should be recited smoothly, and without undue haste.

3 On reaching the accented syllable, and beginning with it, the music of the chant commences, in strict time (a tempo), the upright strokes corresponding to the bars. The Recitation must therefore be considered as outside the chant, and may be of any length. The note on which the Recitation is made is called the Reciting-note.

4 If there is no syllable after that which is accented, the accented syllable must be held for one whole bar or measure.

5 Marks of punctuation must be attended to, as in good reading.

6 As the accent holds the position of the first beat of the first bar, it is unnecessary to sing it louder than any of the words recited: its position, musically, will give it quite enough emphasis.

7 Final ed is always to be pronounced as a separate syllable.

OUR Father who art in heaven, hallowed | be thy | name. || Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in | earth | as it | is in | heaven.

Give us this day our | daily | bread; || And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that | tres- | pass a- | gainst — | us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver | us from | evil; || For thine is the king-

ARTHUR H. D. TROYTE

1. My God, my Father, while I stray Far from my home on life's rough way,

O teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will be done!" A - MEN.

2 Though dark my path and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
And breathe the prayer divinely taught,
"Thy will be done!"

3 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved, no longer nigh!
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done!"

4 Though thou hast called me to resign
What most I prized, it ne'er was mine:

I have but yielded what was thine;
Thy will be done!

5 Let but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest:
Thy will be done!

6 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with thine, and take away
All that now makes it hard to say,
"Thy will be done!"

738 THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

GOD spake these words, and said: I am the Lord thy God: Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not kill.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

And none, O Lo 54	Before the gre 4		Dost thou ask 514	For Jesus shad 281	Grant them the 688
And now we th 614	Before the hills 577	Calmly to thee 378	Dost thou not 239	For the joy of e 28	Grant to little c 41
And O, when g 95	Behold, anoth 570	Cast care and s 307	Down from the 242	For the Lord on 717	Grant us, dear L 226
And on his thor 155	Behold him, al 153	Cast care aside 469	Down in the hu 697	For the love of 58	Grant that all v 658
And ours the g 398	Behold your L 34	Cast thy burde 468	Dropty still'd 548	For thee deligh 460	Grant us thy tr 82
And the chori 4	Beneath his wa 100	Cause me to wa 366		For thee, my G 416	Grant, and ever 284
And shall we lo 34	Beyond my big 208	Cease, cease, ye 598	Each gift but 343	For thou art th 23	Grant God, our 708
And so my onw 40	Beyond the blo 627	Cease, ye pilgr 623	Each moment 345	For souls rebe 692	Grant God, pre 761
And so through 136	Beyond the hio 432	Chance and ch 88	Each step we 347	For the beauty 28	Great God, thy 281
And soon, too 6 878	Beyond the fig 557	Cheerful they 215	Early let us se 677	For the grande 85	Great God, we 45
And the chori 4	Beyond the fig 557	Cherubim and 47	Early with joy 195	For the joy of e 28	Great Shepherd 37
And the shep 117	Beyond the hea 686	Chief of host 693	Exc'down to the 461	For the joy of h 31	Great Sun of m 92
And then, O the 505	Beyond the par 627	Choose for us, G 486	Even the hour t 88	For the Lord on 717	Great, without 712
And there no su 325	Beyond the rea 321	Choose thou to 527	E'er since by a 291	For the love of 58	Green pastures 425
And though thi 101	Beyond the riv 627	Christ, by high 111	E'et from eve 297	For thee deligh 460	Guile thou the 231
And thus that 239	Beyond this wa 270	Christ for the w 655	Embosomed de 475	For thee, my G 416	Guidy I stand 244
And we believ 688	Best thou the 325	Christ is born, 109	Engage thy rov 425	For thy church 28
And we would 72	Blessing and th 576	Christ leads me 470	Enter, incarnat 161	For thy rich, th 85	Hail, blessed J 296

The Psalter

For Responsive Readings in the Sunday Services

Note

The verses printed in Roman are to be read by the Minister

The verses printed in Italic are to be read by the People

THIS Psalter, in accordance with the order of the General Conference, is printed in parallelism after the Hebrew original; and the Hebrew meter, so far as known, is carefully considered in combining portions of separate Psalms into a single reading. The text used is the Authorized Version, except where slight changes were necessary to preserve the parallelism or meter, or render more perfectly the original meaning, and in these cases the emendations are conformed to the character and quality of the version endeared by centuries of use. The Imprecatory Psalms, as well as imprecations contained in other parts of the book, are omitted, as in the Select Psalms prepared by John Wesley.

The selections were made and edited by Professor Robert W. Rogers, D.D., of Drew Theological Seminary.

The Psalter

First Sunday

Morning

Praise the Lord from the heavens:
Praise him in the heights.

*Praise ye him, all his angels:
Praise ye him, all his hosts.*

Praise ye him, sun and moon:
Praise him, all ye stars of light.

*Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,
And ye waters above the heavens.*

Let them praise the name of the
Lord:

For he commanded, and they were created.

He established them forever and ever:

He made a decree which shall not pass.

Praise the Lord from the earth,
Ye dragons, and all deeps:

*Fire and hail, snow and vapor;
Stormy wind, fulfilling his word:*

Mountains and all hills;
Fruitful trees and all cedars:

*Beasts and all cattle;
Creeping things and flying fowl:*

Kings of the earth and all people;
Princes and all judges of the earth:

*Young men and maidens;
Old men and children:*

Let them praise the name of the
Lord;

For his name alone is excellent:

His glory is above the earth and the heavens.

*He also exalteth the horn of his people,
He is the praise of all his saints;
Of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.*

Sing unto the Lord a new song,
And his praise in the assembly of the saints.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Evening

How amiable are thy tabernacles,
O Lord of hosts!

*My soul longeth, yea, fainteth
For the courts of the Lord;*

My heart and my flesh cry out Unto the living God.

*Yea, the sparrow hath found a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she may lay her young,*

Even thine altars, O Lord of hosts,
My King, and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house:

They will be still praising thee.

They go from strength to strength,
They appear before God in Zion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer:

Give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our shield,
And look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

*I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.*

For the Lord God is a sun and a shield:

The Lord will give grace and glory:

No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

*O Lord of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusteth in
thee.*

Second Sunday

Morning

I waited patiently for the Lord;
And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, And set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth,
Even praise unto our God:

*Many shall see it, and fear,
And shall trust in the Lord.*

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

*Many, O Lord my God, are the wonderful works thou hast done,
And thy thoughts which are to us-ward.*

If I would declare and speak of
them,

They are more than can be numbered.

Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire,

Burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

Then I said, Lo, I am come;
In the volume of the book it is written of me:

*I delight to do thy will, O my God;
Yea, thy law is within my heart.*

I have preached righteousness in the great congregation;
Lo, I have not refrained my lips,
O Lord, thou knowest.

*I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart;
I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation.*

Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: Let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

*For innumerable evils have com-passed me about,
Mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.*

They are more in number than the hairs of my head,
Therefore my heart faileth me.

*Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me:
O Lord, make haste to help me.*

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:
Let such as love thy salvation say continually,
The Lord be magnified.

*But I am poor and needy;
Yet the Lord thinketh upon me.*

Thou art my help and my deliverer;
Make no tarrying, O my God.

Evening

God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.

*Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains shake
in the midst of the sea;*

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

*There is a river, whose streams make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacles
of the Most High.*

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:
God shall help her, and that right early.

*The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.*

The Lord of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

*Come, behold the works of the
Lord,
What signs he hath made in the earth.*

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;
He breaketh the bow, and cutteth
the spear in sunder;
He burneth the chariot in the fire.

*Be still, and know that I am
God:
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.*

The Lord of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Third Sunday

Morning

As the hart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O
God.

*My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:
When shall I come and appear before God?*

My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

*When I remember these things I pour out my soul within me,
For I had gone with the multitude,
I went with them to the house of
God,
With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.*

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within
me?

*Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him
For the help of his countenance.*

O my God, my soul is cast down
within me:
Therefore will I remember thee from the land of the Jordan,
And the Hermons, from the hill
Mizar,

*Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterfalls:
All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.*

Yet the Lord will command his loving-kindness in the daytime;
And in the night his song shall be
with me,

Even a prayer unto the God of my life.

*I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?*

As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me,
While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

*Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?*

Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him,
Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

*Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation:
Oh deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.*

For thou art the God of my strength; why dost thou cast me off?

Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

*Oh send out thy light and thy truth; let them lead me:
Let them bring me unto thy holy hill,
And to thy tabernacles.*

Then will I go unto the altar of God,
Unto God my exceeding joy;
And upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

*Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?*

Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him,
Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

Evening

Hear my prayer, O Lord; give ear to my supplications:
In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

*And enter not into judgment with thy servant;
For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.*

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul;
He hath smitten my life down to the ground:
He hath made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.

*Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me;
My heart within me is desolate.*

I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all thy works;
I muse on the work of thy hands.

*I stretch forth my hands unto thee:
My soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land.*

Hear me speedily, O Lord; my spirit faileth:
Hide not thy face from me,
Lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

*Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning;
For in thee do I trust:*

Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk;
For I lift up my soul unto thee.

*Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies:
I flee unto thee to hide me.*

Teach me to do thy will;
For thou art my God:
Thy Spirit is good;
Lead me in the land of uprightness.

*Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name's sake:
In thy righteousness bring my soul
out of trouble.
For I am thy servant.*

Fourth Sunday

Morning

Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, Neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

*For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.*

Trust in the Lord, and do good;
So shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

*Delight thyself also in the Lord;
And he shall give thee the desires of thy heart.*

Commit thy way unto the Lord; Trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

*And he shall make thy righteousness as the light,
And thy judgment as the noonday.*

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him:

Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:

Fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

For evildoers shall be cut off;
But those that wait upon the Lord,
they shall inherit the earth.

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be:

Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

But the meek shall inherit the earth,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

*The wicked plotteth against the just,
And gnasheth upon him with his teeth.*

The Lord shall laugh at him;
For he seeth that his day is coming.

*Better is a little that the righteous hath
Than the riches of many wicked.*

For the arms of the wicked shall be broken;
But the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

*The Lord knoweth the days of the upright;
And their inheritance shall be forever.*

They shall not be ashamed in the evil time;
And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

*But the wicked shall perish,
And the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of lambs:
They shall consume; in smoke shall they consume away.*

The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again;
But the righteous showeth mercy,
and giveth.

*For such as are blessed of him shall inherit the land;
And they that are cursed of him shall be cut off.*

The steps of a good man are ordered of the Lord,
And he delighteth in his way.

Evening

Depart from evil, and do good;
And dwell for evermore.

*For the Lord loveth justice,
And forsaketh not his saints;*

They are preserved forever:
But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

*The righteous shall inherit the land,
And dwell therein forever.*

The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom,
And his tongue talketh of judgment.

*The law of his God is in his heart;
None of his steps shall slide.*

The wicked watcheth the righteous,
And seeketh to slay him.

*The Lord will not leave him in his hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.*

Wait on the Lord, and keep his way,
And he shall exalt thee to inherit the land:
When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

*I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a green bay tree.*

Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not:
Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

*Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright;
For the end of that man is peace.*

But the transgressors shall be destroyed together:

The end of the wicked shall be cut off.

*But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord:
He is their strength in the time of trouble.*

And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them:

He shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them,
Because they trust in him.

Fifth Sunday

Morning

I will bless the Lord at all times:
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord.

The humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

Oh magnify the Lord with me,
And let us exalt his name together.

*I sought the Lord, and he heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.*

They looked unto him, and were lightened;
And their faces were not ashamed.

*This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.*

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him,
And delivereth them.

Oh taste and see that the Lord is good:

Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

Oh fear the Lord, ye his saints;
For there is no want to them that fear him.

*The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger;
But they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.*

Come, ye children, hearken unto
me:
I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

*What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good?*

Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.

*Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.*

The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.

*The face of the Lord is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of
them from the earth.*

The righteous cry, and the Lord
heareth,
And delivereth them out of all their troubles.

*The Lord is nigh unto them that
are of a broken heart,
And saveth such as be of a con-
trite spirit.*

Many are the afflictions of the
righteous;
But the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

*He keepeth all his bones:
Not one of them is broken.*

Evil shall slay the wicked;
And they that hate the righteous
shall be desolate.

*The Lord redeemeth the soul of
his servants;
And none of them that trust in him
shall be desolate.*

Evening

Praise ye the Lord.
Praise the Lord, O my soul.

*While I live will I praise the Lord:
I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.*

Put not your trust in princes, Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

*His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth;
In that very day his thoughts perish.*

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the Lord his God:

*Who made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that in them is;*

Who keepeth truth forever;
Who executeth justice for the oppressed;
Who giveth food to the hungry.

*The Lord looseth the prisoners;
The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind;*

The Lord raiseth up them that are bowed down;
The Lord loveth the righteous;

*The Lord preserveth the sojourners;
He relieveth the fatherless and widow;
But the way of the wicked he turn-eth upside down.*

The Lord will reign forever, Thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.

Praise ye the Lord.

Sixth Sunday

Morning

I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart;
I will show forth all thy marvelous works.

I will be glad and rejoice in thee;

I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.

When mine enemies turn back,
They shall fall and perish at thy presence.

For thou hast maintained my right and my cause;

Thou satest in the throne judging right.

Thou hast rebuked the heathen,
Thou hast destroyed the wicked;
Thou hast put out their name forever and ever.

The enemy are come to an end, they are desolate forever;

And the cities which thou hast overthrown,

Their very memorial is perished.

But the Lord shall endure forever:

He hath prepared his throne for judgment;

And he shall judge the world in righteousness,

He shall minister judgment to the peoples in uprightness.

The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed,

A refuge in times of trouble;

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee;

For thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion:

Declare among the people his doings.

When he maketh inquisition for blood he remembereth them;

He forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord;
Consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me,

Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death;

That I may show forth all thy praise.

In the gates of the daughter of Zion

I will rejoice in thy salvation.

The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made:

In the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

The Lord hath made himself known, he hath executed judgment:

The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.

The wicked shall be turned into Hell,

Even all the nations that forget God.

For the needy shall not always be forgotten,

Nor the expectation of the poor perish forever.

Arise, O Lord; let not man prevail:

Let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

Put them in fear, O Lord:

Let the nations know themselves to be but men.

Evening

Why do the heathen rage,
And the people imagine a vain thing?

*The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together, Against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying,*

Let us break their bonds asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.

*He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh:
The Lord shall have them in derision.*

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,
And vex them in his sore displeasure:

Yet I have set my king Upon my holy hill of Zion.

I will declare the decree:
The Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my son;
This day have I begotten thee.

*Ask of me, and I shall give thee
the heathen for thine inheritance,
And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.*

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

*Now therefore be wise, O ye kings:
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.*

Serve the Lord with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.

*Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way,
When his wrath is kindled but a little.*

Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Seventh Sunday

Morning

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills:

From whence shall my help come?

*My help cometh from the Lord,
Which made heaven and earth.*

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:

He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper:
The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

*The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.*

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil;

He shall preserve thy soul.

*The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in From this time forth and for ever-
more.*

I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go unto the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand Within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is builded
As a city that is compact together;

*Whither the tribes go up, the tribes
of the Lord,
Unto the testimony of Israel,
To give thanks unto the name of the Lord.*

For there are set thrones for judgment,

The thrones of the house of David.

*Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
They shall prosper that love thee.*

Peace be within thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces.

*For my brethren and companions'
sakes,*

I will now say, Peace be within thee.

For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God
I will seek thy good.

Evening

Hear me when I call,
O God of my righteousness;

Thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress;

Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame?
How long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood?

But know that the Lord hath set apart for himself him that is godly:

The Lord will hear when I call unto him.

Stand in awe, and sin not:
Commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,

And put your trust in the Lord.

Many there be that say, Who will show us any good?

Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart,

More than they have when their grain and their new wine are increased.

In peace will I both lay me down and sleep;

For thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety.

Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord,

*Which by night stand in the house
of the Lord.*

Lift up your hands to the sanctuary,
And bless ye the Lord.

*The Lord bless thee out of Zion; Even he that made heaven and
earth.*

Eighth Sunday

Morning

O Lord my God, in thee do I put my trust:

Save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me,

Lest they tear my soul like a lion, Rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

O Lord my God, if I have done this;
If there be iniquity in my hands;

If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me

(Yea, I have delivered him that without cause was mine adversary);

Let the enemy persecute my soul,
and take it;

Yea, let him tread my life down to
the earth,

And lay mine honor in the dust.

Arise, O Lord, in thine anger;

Lift up thyself against the rage of mine enemies,

And awake for me; thou hast commanded judgment.

And let the congregation of the peoples compass thee about;

And over them return thou on high.

*The Lord shall judge the people:
Judge me, O Lord, according to my righteousness, and to mine integrity that is in me.*

Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish thou the just:
For the righteous God trieth the minds and hearts.

*My defense is of God,
Which saveth the upright in heart.*

God is a righteous judge,
Yea, a God that hath indignation every day.

*If a man turn not, he will whet his sword;
He hath bent his bow, and made it ready;*

He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death;
He ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

*Behold, he travaileth with iniquity;
Yea, he hath conceived mischief,
and brought forth falsehood.*

He hath made a pit, and digged it,
And is fallen into the ditch which he made.

*His mischief shall return upon his own head,
And his violence shall come down upon his own pate.*

I will praise the Lord according to his righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of the Lord Most High.

Evening

O Lord, rebuke me not in thine anger,
Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

*Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for
I am weak:
O Lord, heal me; for my bones are vexed.*

My soul also is sore vexed:
And thou, O Lord, how long?

*Return, O Lord, deliver my soul:
Save me for thy mercies' sake.*

For in death there is no remembrance of thee:

In the grave who shall give thee
thanks?

*I am weary with my groaning;
All the night make I my bed to swim;
I water my couch with my tears.*

Mine eye is consumed because of grief;

It waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

*Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity;
For the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.*

The Lord hath heard my supplica-
tion;

The Lord will receive my prayer.

*All mine enemies shall be put to shame and sore troubled:
They shall turn back, they shall be put to shame suddenly.*

Tenth Sunday

Morning

The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble;

The name of the God of Jacob defend thee;

*Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion;*

Remember all thy offerings,
And accept thy burnt sacrifice;

*Grant thee thy heart's desire,
And fulfill all thy counsel.*

We will rejoice in thy salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners:
The Lord fulfill all thy petitions.

*Now know I that the Lord saveth his anointed;
He will hear him from his holy heaven
With the saving strength of his right hand.*

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses;
But we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

*They are brought down and fallen;
But we are risen, and stand upright.*

Save, Lord:
Let the King hear us when we call.

*The king shall joy in thy strength,
O Lord;
And in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!*

Thou hast given him his heart's desire,
And hast not withholden the request of his lips.

*For thou meetest him with the blessings of goodness:
Thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.*

He asked life of thee, thou gavest
it him,
Even length of days forever and
ever.

*His glory is great in thy salva-
tion:
Honor and majesty hast thou laid upon him.*

For thou hast made him most blessed forever:

Thou hast made him glad with joy in thy presence.

*For the king trusteth in the Lord;
And through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.*

Be thou exalted, O Lord, in thine own strength:

So will we sing and praise thy power.

Evening

The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof;

The world, and they that dwell therein.

*For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.*

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?

And who shall stand in his holy place?

*He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood,
And hath not sworn deceitfully.*

He shall receive the blessing from
the Lord,

And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

*This is the generation of them that seek him,
That seek thy face, O Jacob.*

Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:

And the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord strong and mighty,
The Lord mighty in battle.

*Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
Even lift them up, ye everlasting
doors:
And the King of glory shall come in.*

Who is this King of glory?

*The Lord of hosts,
He is the King of glory.*

Tenth Sunday

Morning

Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

O my God, in thee have I trusted,

*Let me not be ashamed;
Let not mine enemies triumph over me.*

Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed:

Let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

Show me thy ways, O Lord; Teach me thy paths.

Lead me in thy truth, and teach
me;

For thou art the God of my salva-
tion;

On thee do I wait all the day.

*Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses;
For they have been ever of old.*

Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions:

According to thy mercy remember thou me,

For thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

Good and upright is the Lord: Therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

The meek will he guide in judgment;

And the meek will he teach his way.

All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth

Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy name's sake, O Lord, Pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.

What man is he that feareth the Lord?

Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

His soul shall dwell at ease;
And his seed shall inherit the earth.

*The secret of the Lord is with them
that fear him;*

And he will show them his covenant.

Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord;

For he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me;

For I am desolate and afflicted.

The troubles of my heart are enlarged:

Oh bring thou me out of my distresses.

Look upon mine affliction and my pain;

And forgive all my sins.

Oh keep my soul, and deliver me:
Let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in thee.

Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,

For I wait for thee.

Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all his troubles.

Evening

Judge me, O Lord, for I have walked in mine integrity:
I have trusted also in the Lord without wavering.

*Examine me, O Lord, and prove
me;
Try my reins and my heart.*

For thy loving-kindness is before
mine eyes;
And I have walked in thy truth.

*I have not sat with vain persons;
Neither will I go in with dissemblers.*

I hate the congregation of evil-doers,
And will not sit with the wicked.

*I will wash my hands in innocency:
So will I compass thine altar, O
Lord;*

That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all thy wondrous works.

*Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house,
And the place where thine honor dwelleth.*

Gather not my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloody men;

*In whose hands is mischief,
And their right hand is full of bribes.*

But as for me, I will walk in mine
integrity:
Redeem me, and be merciful unto
me.

*My foot standeth in an even place:
In the congregations will I bless
the Lord.*

Eleventh Sunday

Morning

Lord, how are mine adversaries increased!
Many are they that rise up against
me.

*Many there be which say of my
soul,
There is no help for him in
God.*

But thou, O Lord, art a shield for
me;
My glory, and the lifter up of my head.

*I cried unto the Lord with my voice,
And he heard me out of his holy hill.*

I laid me down and slept;
I awaked; for the Lord sustained
me.

I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people That have set themselves against me round about.

Arise, O Lord; save me, O my
God:

For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

*Salvation belongeth unto the Lord:
Thy blessing be upon thy people.*

Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens;
Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

*Thy righteousness is like the great mountains;
Thy judgments are a great deep:
O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.*

How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God!

Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

For with thee is the fountain of life:

In thy light shall we see light.

Oh continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee, And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

Let not the foot of pride come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

*There are the workers of iniquity fallen:
They are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.*

Evening

Give ear to my words, O Lord,
Consider my meditation.

*Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God;
For unto thee will I pray.*

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord;

In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

*For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness:
Neither shall evil dwell with thee.*

The foolish shall not stand in thy sight:

Thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

Thou shalt destroy them that speak lies:

The Lord will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

But as for me, in the abundance of thy merey will I come into thy house:

In thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies;

Make thy way straight before my face.

Let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice,

Let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them:

Let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

*For thou wilt bless the righteous;
O Lord, thou wilt compass him with favor as with a shield.*

By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness,
O God of our salvation;

*Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of them that are afar off upon the sea.*

Twelfth Sunday

Morning

The heavens declare the glory of God;

And the firmament showeth his handiwork.

*Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night showeth knowledge.*

There is no speech nor language;
Their voice is not heard.

*Their line is gone out through all
the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.*

In them hath he set a tabernacle
for the sun,
Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

*His going forth is from the end of
the heavens,
And his circuit unto the ends
of it;
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.*

O Lord, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all
the earth,

Who hast set thy glory above the heavens!

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength,

Because of thine enemies,
That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

*When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;*

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

*For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels,
And hast crowned him with glory and honor.*

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;
Thou hast put all things under his feet:

*All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field,*

The fowl of the air, and the fish
of the sea,
Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

*O Lord, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all
the earth.*

Evening

In the Lord put I my trust:
How say ye to my soul,
Flee as a bird to your mountain;

*For, lo, the wicked bend the bow,
They make ready their arrow upon the string,
That they may shoot in darkness
at the upright in heart;*

If the foundations be destroyed,
What can the righteous do?

*The Lord is in his holy temple;
The Lord's throne is in heaven;*

His eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

The Lord trieth the righteous;

But the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

Upon the wicked he shall rain snares;

Fire and brimstone and an horrible tempest shall be the portion of their cup.

For the righteous Lord loveth
righteousness:

The upright shall behold his countenance.

*Help, Lord; for the godly man
ceaseth;*

*For the faithful fail from among
the children of men.*

They speak vanity every one with his neighbor:

With flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips,

The tongue that speaketh proud things;

Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail;

Our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

*For the oppression of the poor,
For the sighing of the needy,
Now will I arise, saith the Lord;
I will set him in the safety he panteth for.*

The words of the Lord are pure words;
As silver tried in a furnace on the earth,
Purified seven times.

*Thou wilt keep them, O Lord,
Thou shalt preserve them from this generation forever.*

The wicked walk on every side,
When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

Thirteenth Sunday

Morning

Hear the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry;
Give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

*Let my sentence come forth from thy presence;
Let thine eyes look upon equity.*

Thou hast proved my heart; thou hast visited me in the night;
Thou hast tried me, and findest nothing;

I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

As for the works of men, by the word of thy lips

I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

My steps have held fast to thy paths,

My feet have not slipped.

I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God:

Incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

Show thy marvelous loving-kindness,

O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee

From those that rise up against them.

*Keep me as the apple of the eye;
Hide me under the shadow of thy wings,*

Deliver my soul from the wicked by thy sword;

From men by thy hand, O Lord,

From men of the world, whose portion is in this life,

And whose belly thou fillest with thy treasure:

They are satisfied with children,
And leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

Consider and hear me, O Lord my God:

Lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him;

Lest mine adversaries rejoice when I am moved.

*But I have trusted in thy mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.*

I will sing unto the Lord,
Because he hath dealt bountifully
with me.

*As for me, I shall behold thy face in righteousness;
I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.*

Evening

Why standest thou afar off, O
Lord?

Why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

*The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor;
Let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.*

For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire,
And blesseth the covetous whom the Lord abhorreth.

*The wicked, in the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God.
God is not in all his thoughts.
His ways are always grievous;*

Thy judgments are far above out of his sight:

As for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

*Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up thy hand:
Forget not the humble.*

Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God,
And say in his heart, Thou wilt not require it?

*The poor committeth himself unto
thee;
Thou art the helper of the fatherless.*

Break thou the arm of the wicked;
And as for the evil man, seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

*The Lord is King forever and ever:
The heathen are perished out of his land.*

Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble:
Thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear;

*To judge the fatherless and the oppressed,
That man of the earth may no more oppress.*

Fourteenth Sunday

Morning

I love thee, O Lord, my strength.

*The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
My God, my strength, in whom I will trust;
My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.*

I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised:
So shall I be saved from mine
enemies.

*The sorrows of death compassed
me,
And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.*

The sorrows of hell compassed me;
The snares of death came upon me.

*In my distress I called upon the
Lord,
And cried unto my God:*

He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry before him came into his ears.

*Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations also of the mountains quaked
And were shaken, because he was wroth.*

There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
And fire out of his mouth devoured:
Coals were kindled by it.

*He bowed the heavens also, and came down;
And thick darkness was under his feet.*

And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly;
Yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

*He made darkness his secret place,
his pavilion round about him, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.*

At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,
Hailstones and coals of fire.

*The Lord also thundered in the heavens,
And the Most High uttered his voice,
Hailstones and coals of fire.*

Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
And he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

*Then the channels of waters were seen,
And the foundations of the world were laid bare.*

At thy rebuke, O Lord,
At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

*He sent from on high, he took me;
He drew me out of many waters.*

He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from them which hated me;
for they were too strong for me.

*They came upon me in the day of my calamity;
But the Lord was my stay.*

He brought me forth also into a large place;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.

Evening

The fool hath said in his heart,
There is no God.
They are corrupt, they have done abominable works;
There is none that doeth good.

*The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were any that did understand,
That did seek after God.*

They are all gone aside; they are together become filthy;
There is none that doeth good, no,
not one.

*Have all the workers of iniquity
no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And call not upon the Lord?*

There were they in great fear;
For God is in the generation of the righteous.

*Ye put to shame the counsel of the poor,
Because the Lord is his refuge.*

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

*He leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with
me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Fifteenth Sunday

Morning

The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

*For I have kept the ways of the
Lord,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.*

For all his judgments were before
me,
And I put not away his statutes
from me.

*I was also upright before him,
And I kept myself from mine iniquity.*

Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

*With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful;
With an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright;*

With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure;
And with the froward thou wilt show thyself froward.

*For thou wilt save the afflicted
people;
But wilt bring down high looks.*

For thou wilt light my candle:
The Lord my God will lighten my darkness.

*As for God, his way is perfect:
He is a shield unto all them that take refuge in him.*

For who is God, save the Lord?
And who is a rock, save our
God?

*It is God that girdeth me with
strength,
And maketh my way perfect.*

He maketh my feet like hinds' feet:
And setteth me upon my high places.

*He teacheth my hands to war;
So that mine arms do bend a bow of brass.*

Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation;
And thy right hand hath holden
me up,
And thy gentleness hath made me great.

*Thou hast enlarged my steps under
me,
And my feet did not slip.*

The Lord liveth; and blessed be my rock;
And let the God of my salvation be exalted.

*It is God that executeth vengeance
for me,
And subdueth peoples under me.*

He delivereth me from mine enemies;
Yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me;
Thou deliverest me from the violent man.

Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, And will sing praises unto thy name.

Great deliverance giveth he to his king,
And showeth mercy to his anointed,
To David and to his seed, for evermore.

Evening

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?

*The Lord is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?*

When the wicked came upon me
to eat up my flesh,
Even mine adversaries and my foes,
they stumbled and fell.

*Though a host should encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear:*

Though war should rise against me,
In this will I be confident.

*One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,*

To behold the beauty of the Lord,
And to inquire in his temple.

*For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion:
In the secret of his tabernacle he shall hide me:*

He shall lift me up upon a rock.
And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me;

*Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises
unto the Lord.*

Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice:
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Hide not thy face from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:

*Thou hast been my help;
Leave me not, neither forsake me,
O God of my salvation.*

When my father and my mother
forsake me,
Then the Lord will take me up.

*Teach me thy way, O Lord;
And lead me in a plain path,
Because of mine enemies.*

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies:

For false witnesses are risen up
against me,
And such as breathe out cruelty.

*I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord
In the land of the living.*

Wait on the Lord:

Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thy heart;
Wait, I say, on the Lord.

Sixteenth Sunday

Morning

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not;

And in the night season, and am not silent.

But thou art holy,
O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

Our fathers trusted in thee:

They trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

They cried unto thee, and were delivered:

They trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

*But I am a worm, and no man;
A reproach of men, and despised of the people.*

All they that see me laugh me to scorn:

They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

He trusted on the Lord, that he would deliver him:

Let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

Be not far from me; for trouble is near;

For there is none to help.

*Many bulls have compassed me;
Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.*

They gape upon me with their mouths,

As a ravening and a roaring lion.

*I am poured out like water,
And all my bones are out of joint:*

My heart is like wax;
It is melted within me.

*My strength is dried up like a potsherd;
And my tongue cleaveth to my jaws;*

And thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

For dogs have compassed me:

The assembly of the wicked have inclosed me;

They pierced my hands and my feet.

I may count all my bones.

They look and stare upon me;

They part my garments among them,

And upon my vesture do they cast lots.

But be not thou far off, O Lord:

O thou my strength, haste thee to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword,
My darling from the power of the dog.

Save me from the lion's mouth;

Yea, from the horns of the wild oxen thou hast heard me.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren:

In the midst of the assembly will I praise thee.

Evening

Ye that fear the Lord, praise him;
All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him,

And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;

Neither hath he hid his face from him;
But when he cried unto him, he heard.

*My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation:
I will pay my vows before them that fear him.*

The meek shall eat and be satisfied;
They shall praise the Lord that seek after him:
Let your heart live forever.

*All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord;
And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.*

For the kingdom is the Lord's;
And he is the governor among the nations.

*A seed shall serve him;
It shall be told of the Lord unto the next generation.*

They shall come and shall declare his righteousness
Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

*We have heard with our ears, O God,
Our fathers have told us.*

What work thou didst in their days,
In the times of old.

*Thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand;
But them thou didst plant:*

Thou didst afflict the peoples;
But them thou didst spread abroad.

For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, Neither did their own arm save them;

But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance,
Because thou wast favorable unto them.

Thou art my King, O God: Command deliverance for Jacob.

Seventeenth Sunday

Morning

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust;
Let me never be put to shame:

*Deliver me in thy righteousness.
Bow down thine ear unto me; deliver me speedily:*

Be thou to me a strong rock,
A house of defense to save me.

*For thou art my rock and my fortress;
Therefore for thy name's sake lead me and guide me.*

Pull me out of the net that they have hidden for me;
For thou art my strength.

*Into thy hand I commend my spirit:
Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, God of truth.*

I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy;
For thou hast considered my trouble:

*Thou hast known my soul in adversities;
And thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;*

Thou hast set my feet in a large place.

And I trusted in thee, O Lord:

*I said, Thou art my God.
My times are in thy hand:*

Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

Make thy face to shine upon thy servant:

*Save me for thy mercies' sake.
Let me not be ashamed, O Lord;
for I have called upon thee:*

Oh how great is thy goodness,
Which thou hast laid up for them
that fear thee,

*Which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee,
Before the sons of men!*

Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence:

Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

*Blessed be the Lord;
For he hath showed me his marvelous kindness in a strong city.*

As for me, I said in my haste,
I am cut off from before thine eyes:

*Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications,
When I cried unto thee.*

Oh love the Lord, all ye his saints:
The Lord preserveth the faithful,
And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

*Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart,
All ye that hope in the Lord.*

Evening

Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, Give unto the Lord glory and
strength.

*Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name;
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.*

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters:

The God of glory thundereth,
The Lord is upon many waters.

*The voice of the Lord is powerful;
The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.*

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars;

Yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

*He maketh them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.*

The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire.

The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness;

The Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

*The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve,
And strippeth the forests bare:
And in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.*

The Lord sitteth upon the flood;
Yea, the Lord sitteth King forever.

*The Lord will give strength unto his people;
The Lord will bless his people with peace.*

Oh praise the Lord, all ye nations;
Praise him, all ye peoples.

*For his mercy is great toward us;
And the truth of the Lord endureth forever.*

Praise ye the Lord.

Eighteenth Sunday

Morning

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous:
Praise is comely for the upright.

*Praise the Lord with the harp:
Sing unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.*

Sing unto him a new song;
Play skillfully with a loud noise.

*For the word of the Lord is right;
And all his works are done in truth.*

He loveth righteousness and judgment:
The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

*By the word of the Lord were the heavens made,
And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.*

He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap:
He layeth up the depth in store-houses.

Let all the earth fear the Lord: Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

*The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to naught;
He maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect.*

The counsel of the Lord standeth
forever,
The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

*Blessed is the nation whose God is
the Lord,
The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.*

The Lord looketh from heaven;
He beholdeth all the sons of men;

*From the place of his habitation
he looketh forth Upon all the inhabitants of the
earth,*

He that fashioneth the hearts of
them all,
That considereth all their works.

*There is no king saved by the multitude of a host:
A mighty man is not delivered by much strength.*

A horse is a vain thing for safety;
Neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

*Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him,
Upon them that hope in his mercy;*

To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.

*Our soul waiteth for the Lord:
He is our help and our shield.*

For our heart shall rejoice in
him,
Because we have trusted in his holy
name.

*Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us,
According as we have hoped in
thee.*

Evening

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.

*Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no guile.*

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old
Through my roaring all the day long.

*For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me:
My moisture is turned into the drought of summer.*

I acknowledged my sin unto thee,
And mine iniquity have I not hid:

*I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord;
And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.*

For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found:
Surely in the floods of great waters
they shall not come nigh unto him.

*Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble;
Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.*

I will instruct thee and teach thee
in the way which thou shalt go:
I will guide thee with mine eye.

*Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding;
Whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, Else it will not come near unto
thee.*

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

*Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice,
ye righteous;
And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.*

Nineteenth Sunday

Morning

I will bless the Lord at all times:
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

*My soul shall make her boast in
the Lord:
The humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.*

Oh magnify the Lord with me,
And let us exalt his name together.

*I sought the Lord, and he heard
me,
And delivered me from all my fears.*

They looked unto him, and were lightened;
And their faces were not ashamed.

*This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.*

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him,
And delivereth them.

*Oh taste and see that the Lord is good:
Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.*

Oh fear the Lord, ye his saints;
For there is no want to them that
fear him.

*The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger;
But they that seek the Lord shall
not want any good thing.*

Come, ye children, hearken unto
me:
I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

*What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good?*

Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.

*Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.*

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.

*The face of the Lord is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of
them from the earth.*

The righteous cry, and the Lord
heareth,
And delivereth them out of all their troubles.

*The Lord is nigh unto them that
are of a broken heart,
And saveth such as be of a con-
trite spirit.*

Many are the afflictions of the
righteous:
But the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

*He keepeth all his bones:
Not one of them is broken.*

Evil shall slay the wicked:
And they that hate the righteous
shall be desolate.

*The Lord redeemeth the soul of
his servants:
And none of them that trust in him
shall be desolate.*

Evening

I said, I will take heed to my ways,
That I sin not with my tongue.

*I will keep my mouth with a bridle,
While the wicked is before me.*

I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred.

*My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing the fire burned;
Then spake I with my tongue:*

Lord, make me to know mine end,
And the measure of my days, what it is;
That I may know how frail I am.

*Behold, thou hast made my days
as an handbreadth;
And mine age is as nothing before
thee:*

Verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity.
Surely every man walketh in a vain show;

*Surely they are disquieted in vain:
He heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.*

And now, Lord, what wait I for?
My hope is in thee.

*Deliver me from all my transgressions:
Make me not the reproach of the foolish.*

I was dumb, I opened not my mouth;
Because thou didst it.

*Remove thy stroke away from me:
I am consumed by the blow of thy hand.*

When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, Thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth:
Surely every man is vanity.

*Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry;
Hold not thy peace at my tears:*

For I am a stranger with thee,
A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

*Oh spare me, that I may recover
strength,
Before I go hence, and be no more.*

Twentieth Sunday

Morning

Plead my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me:
Fight thou against them that fight
against me.

*Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.*

Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me:

Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

*And my soul shall be joyful in the
Lord:
It shall rejoice in his salvation.*

All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee,
Which deliverest the poor from him
that is too strong for him, Yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

*I will give thee thanks in the great assembly:
I will praise thee among much
people.*

Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; Neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

*For they speak not peace;
But they devise deceitful words against them that are quiet in the land.*

Thou hast seen it, O Lord; keep not silence:
O Lord, be not far from me.

Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment.

Even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

Judge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousness;
And let them not rejoice over
me.

*Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause:
Yea, let them say continually, Let
the Lord be magnified,
Which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.*

And my tongue shall talk of thy righteousness
And of thy praise all the day long.

*O Israel, hope in the Lord;
For with the Lord there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.*

And he will redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

Evening

Great is the Lord, and greatly to
be praised,
In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

*Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth,
Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.*

God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

For, lo, the kings assembled,
They passed by together.

*They saw it, and so they marveled;
They were troubled, and hasted away.*

Trembling took hold of them there,
Pain, as of a woman in travail.

*Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish
With an east wind.*

As we have heard, so have we seen In the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish it forever.

*We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God,
In the midst of thy temple.*

According to thy name, O God,
So is thy praise unto the ends of the
earth:
Thy right hand is full of righteousness.

*Let mount Zion rejoice,
Let the daughters of Judah be glad,
Because of thy judgments.*

Walk about Zion, and go round about her;
Number the towers thereof;

*Mark ye well her bulwarks;
Consider her palaces:
That ye may tell it to the generation following.*

For this God is our God forever
and ever:
He will be our guide even unto death.

Twenty-first Sunday

Morning

Forever, O Lord,
Thy word is settled in heaven.

*Thy faithfulness is unto all generations:
Thou hast established the earth,
and it abideth.*

They continue this day according to thine ordinances;
For all things are thy servants.

*Unless thy law had been my delight,
I should then have perished in mine affliction.*

I will never forget thy precepts;
For with them thou hast quickened
me.

*I am thine, save me;
For I have sought thy precepts.*

The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me;
But I will consider thy testimonies.

*I have seen an end of all perfec-
tion;
But thy commandment is exceeding broad.*

Oh how love I thy law!
It is my meditation all the day.

*Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies;
For they are ever with me.*

I have more understanding than all my teachers;
For thy testimonies are my meditation.

*I understand more than the aged,
Because I have kept thy precepts.*

I have refrained my feet from every evil way,
That I might observe thy word.

*I have not departed from thine ordinances;
For thou hast taught me.*

How sweet are thy words unto my taste!
Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Through thy precepts I get understanding:

Therefore I hate every false way.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
And light unto my path.

I have sworn, and have confirmed it,

That I will observe thy righteous ordinances.

I am afflicted very much:

Quicken me, O Lord, according unto thy word.

Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, And teach me thine ordinances.

My soul is continually in my hand;

Yet do I not forget thy law.

The wicked have laid a snare for me;

Yet have I not gone astray from thy precepts.

Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage forever;

For they are the rejoicing of my heart.

I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes

Forever, even unto the end.

Evening

O Lord, rebuke me not in thy wrath;

Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

For thine arrows stick fast in me,

And thy hand presseth me sore.

There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger;

Neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

For mine iniquities are gone over my head:

As a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

I am troubled and bowed down greatly;

I go mourning all the day long.

I am faint and sore broken.

Lord, all my desire is before thee;

And my groaning is not hid from thee.

My heart panteth, my strength faileth me:

As for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

But I, as a deaf man, heard not;

And I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

Thus I was as a man that heareth not,

And in whose mouth are no re-proofs.

For in thee, O Lord, do I hope:

Thou wilt hear, O Lord my God.

For I am ready to halt,

And my sorrow is continually before me.

For I will declare mine iniquity;

I will be sorry for my sin.

Forsake me not, O Lord:

O my God, be not far from me.

Make haste to help me,

O Lord, my salvation.

Twenty-second Sunday

Morning

Hear this, all ye people;

Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world,

Both low and high,

Rich and poor together.

My mouth shall speak wisdom;
And the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

I will incline mine ear to a parable:

I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil,
When iniquity at my heels compasseth me about?

*They that trust in their wealth,
And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;*

None of them can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him,

*That he should still live alway,
That he should not see corruption.*

For he shall see it. Wise men die;
Likewise the fool and the brutish perish,
And leave their wealth to others.

*Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue forever,
And their dwelling places to all generations;
They call their lands after their own names.*

Nevertheless man being in honor abideth not:

He is like the beasts that perish.
This their way is their folly:
Yet their posterity approve their sayings.

*Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
Death shall be their shepherd:
And the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning;*

And their beauty shall consume in the grave,
That there be no dwelling for it.

*But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave;
For he shall receive me.*

Be not thou afraid when one is made rich,
When the glory of his house is increased:

*For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away;
His glory shall not descend after him.*

Though while he lived he blessed his soul
(And men praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself),

*He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never see the light.*

Man that is in honor, and understandeth not,
Is like the beasts that perish.

Evening

Oh clap your hands, all ye people;
Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

*For the Lord Most High is terrible;
He is a great King over all the earth.*

He subdueth the people under us,
And the nations under our feet.

*He shall choose our inheritance for us,
The excellency of Jacob whom he loved.*

God is gone up with a shout,
The Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

*Sing praises to God, sing praises:
Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.*

For God is the King of all the
earth:

Sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the heathen:

God sitteth upon his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples are gathered together

Even the people of the God of Abraham;

*For the shields of the earth belong
unto God:*

He is greatly exalted.

Save me, O God, by thy name,
And judge me by thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God;

Give ear to the words of my mouth.

For strangers are risen up against
me,

And oppressors have sought after
my soul:

They have not set God before them.

Behold, God is my helper:

*The Lord is of them that uphold
my soul.*

With a freewill offering will I sacrifice unto thee:

I will give thanks unto thy name,
O Lord, for it is good.

Twenty-third Sunday

Morning

The Mighty God, the Lord, hath spoken,

And called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,

God hath shined forth.

Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence:

A fire shall devour before him,
And it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

*He shall call to the heavens above,
And to the earth, that he may judge his people:*

Gather my saints together unto
me,

Those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

And the heavens shall declare his righteousness;

For God is judge himself.

Hear, O my people, and I will speak;

O Israel, and I will testify unto
thee:

I am God, even thy God.

*Not for sacrifices will I reprove
thee;*

And thy burnt offerings are continually before me.

I will take no bullock out of thy house,

Nor he-goats out of thy folds.

For every beast of the forest is mine,

And the cattle upon a thousand hills.

I know all the fowls of the mountains;

And the wild beasts of the field are mine.

*If I were hungry, I would not tell
thee;*

For the world is mine, and the fullness thereof.

Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?

Evening

*Offer unto God the sacrifice of thanksgiving;
And pay thy vows unto the Most High;*

And call upon me in the day of trouble:
I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

*But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes,
And that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth,*

Seeing that thou hatest instruc-
tion,
And castest my words behind
thee?

*When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst with him,
And hast been partaker with adulterers.*

Thou givest thy mouth to evil,
And thy tongue frameth deceit.

*Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother;
Thou slanderest thine own mother's son.*

These things hast thou done, and I kept silence;
Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself:
But I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

*Now consider this, ye that forget
God,
Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver:*

Whoso offereth praise glorifieth
me;
And to him that ordereth his way aright
Will I show the salvation of God.

Be merciful unto me, O God; for man would swallow me up:
He fighting daily oppresseth me.

*Mine enemies would daily swallow me up;
For they be many that fight against
me,
O thou Most High.*

What time I am afraid,
I will trust in thee.

*In God I will praise his word:
In God I have put my trust, I will not fear
What flesh can do unto me.*

Every day they wrest my words:
All their thoughts are against me for evil.

*They gather themselves together, they hide themselves,
They mark my steps,
When they wait for my soul.*

Thou numberest my wanderings:
Put thou my tears into thy bottle;
Are they not in thy book?

*Then shall mine enemies turn back in the day that I call:
This I know, that God is for me.*

In God I will praise his word:
In the Lord I will praise his word.

*In God have I put my trust, I will not be afraid
What man can do unto me.*

Thy vows are upon me, O God:
I will render praises unto thee.

*For thou hast delivered my soul
from death:
Wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling,*

That I may walk before God
In the light of the living?

Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me;

For my soul trusteth in thee:

Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
will I make my refuge,
Until these calamities be overpast.

I will cry unto God Most High, Unto God that performeth all things for me.

Be thou exalted, O God, above the
heavens;

Let thy glory be above all the earth.

Twenty-fourth Sunday

Morning

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness:
According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

*Wash me thoroughly from mine
iniquity,*

And cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions;

And my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,

And done that which is evil in thy sight;

That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest,

And be clear when thou judgest.

*Behold, I was shapen in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.*

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts;

And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

*Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.*

Create in me a clean heart, O
God;

And renew a right spirit within
me.

Cast me not away from thy presence;

*And take not thy holy Spirit from
me.*

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;

And uphold me with thy free Spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;

And sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O
God, thou God of my salvation;

And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips;

And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

For thou desirest not sacrifice;
else would I give it:

Thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

*A broken and a contrite heart, O
God, thou wilt not despise.*

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion:

Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

*Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt offering and whole burnt offering:
Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.*

Evening

Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle?

Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

*He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And speaketh the truth in his heart;*

He that backbiteth not with his tongue,
Nor doeth evil to his neighbor, Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor;

*In whose eyes a vile person is contemned,
But who honoreth them that fear
the Lord;
He that sweareth to his own hurt,
and changeth not;*

He that putteth not out his money to usury,
Nor taketh reward against the innocent.
He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee:

*My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee,
In a dry and weary land, where no water is;*

To see thy power and thy glory,
So as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

*Because thy loving-kindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise thee.*

Thus will I bless thee while I live:
I will lift up my hands in thy name.

*My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips;*

When I remember thee upon my bed,
And meditate on thee in the night watches.

Because thou hast been my help, Therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

My soul followeth hard after thee:
Thy right hand upholdeth me.

*But the King shall rejoice in
God:
Every one that sweareth by him shall glory;
But the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.*

Twenty-fifth Sunday

Morning

Blessed are the undefiled in the way,
Who walk in the law of the Lord.

*Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
That seek him with the whole heart.*

Yea, they do no iniquity;
They walk in his ways.

*Thou hast commanded us thy precepts,
That we should observe them diligently.*

Oh that my ways were established
To observe thy statutes!

*Then shall I not be ashamed,
When I have respect unto all thy commandments.*

I will praise thee with uprightness of heart,
When I learn thy righteous judgments.

*I will keep thy statutes:
Oh forsake me not utterly.*

Wherewithal shall a young man cleans his way?
By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

*With my whole heart have I sought
thee:
Oh let me not wander from thy commandments.*

Thy word have I laid up in my
heart,
That I might not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord: Teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I declared
All the judgments of thy mouth.

*I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,
As much as in all riches.*

I will meditate in thy precepts,
And have respect unto thy ways.

*I will delight myself in thy statutes:
I will not forget thy word.*

Deal bountifully with thy servant,
that I may live;
So will I observe thy word.

*Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold
Wondrous things out of thy law.*

I am a stranger in the earth:
Hide not thy commandments from
me.

*My soul breaketh for the longing
That it hath unto thine ordinances at all times.*

Thy testimonies also are my delight
And my counselors.

Evening

Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion;
And unto thee shall the vow be performed.

*O thou that hearest prayer,
Unto thee shall all flesh come.*

Iniquities prevail against me:
As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

*Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach
unto thee,
That he may dwell in thy courts:*

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
Even of thy holy temple.

*By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness,
O God of our salvation,*

Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of them that are afar off upon the sea:

*Which by his strength setteth fast
the mountains,
Being girded about with power;*

Which stilleth the roaring of the seas,
The noise of their waves,
And the tumult of the peoples.

*They also that dwell in the utter-most parts are afraid at thy tokens:
Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.*

Thou visitest the earth, and water-est it,
Thou greatly enrichest it;

*The river of God is full of water:
Thou providest them corn, when thou hast so prepared the earth.*

Thou waterest its ridges abundantly;

Thou settlest the furrows thereof:
*Thou makest it soft with showers;
Thou blessest the springing thereof.*

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness;
And thy paths drop fatness.

*They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness;
And the little hills rejoice on every side.*

The pastures are clothed with flocks;

The valleys also are covered over with corn;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

Twenty-sixth Sunday

Morning

Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:

*Sing forth the honor of his name:
Make his praise glorious.*

Say unto God, How terrible are thy works!

Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

*All the earth shall worship thee,
And shall sing unto thee;
They shall sing to thy name.*

Come, and see the works of God;
He is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

*He turned the sea into dry land;
They went through the river on foot:
There did we rejoice in him.*

He ruleth by his power forever;
His eyes behold the nations:
Let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

*Oh bless our God, ye people,
And make the voice of his praise
to be heard;*

Which holdeth our soul in life,
And suffereth not our feet to be moved.

For thou, O God, hast proved us: Thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us into the net;
Thou laidst a sore burden upon our loins.

*Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads;
We went through fire and through water;
But thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.*

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
And cause his face to shine upon us;

*That thy way may be known upon
earth,
Thy saving health among all nations.*

Let the people praise thee, O God;
Let all the people praise thee.

*Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
For thou shalt judge the peoples
righteously,
And govern the nations upon earth.*

Let the people praise thee, O God;
Let all the people praise thee.

*Then shall the earth yield her increase:
God, even our own God, shall bless
us.*

God shall bless us;
And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Evening

Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks;
Unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near Thy wondrous works declare.

When I shall receive the congregation

I will judge uprightly.

The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved:
I have set up the pillars of it.

I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly:

And to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:

Lift not up your horn on high;
Speak not with a stiff neck.

*For neither from the east, nor from the west,
Nor yet from the south, cometh promotion.*

But God is the judge:
He putteth down one, and setteth up another.

For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red;

It is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same:

But the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall drain them, and drink them.

But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off;

But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The Lord will not hear me:

*But verily God hath heard me;
He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.*

Blessed be God,
Which hath not turned away my prayer,
Nor his mercy from me.

Twenty-seventh Sunday

Morning

Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered;
Let them also that hate him flee before him.

As smoke is driven away, so drive them away:

*As wax melteth before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.*

But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God:
Yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

*Sing unto God, sing praises to his
name:*

Extol him that rideth upon the heavens

By his name Jehovah, and rejoice ye before him.

A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
Is God in his holy habitation.

*God setteth the solitary in families:
He bringeth out those which are bound with chains:*

But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people,
When thou didst march through
the wilderness;

*The earth shook,
The heavens also dropped at the presence of God:
Yon Sinai was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.*

Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful
rain,
Thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

*Thy congregation hath dwelt there-
in:
Thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.*

Blessed be the Lord, who daily
loadeth us with benefits,
Even the God who is our salvation.

*God is unto us a God of deliverances;
And unto God the Lord belongeth escape from death.*

Thy God hath commanded thy
strength:
Strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.

*Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of
the earth;
Oh sing praises unto the Lord;*

To him that rideth upon the heaven of heavens, which were of old;
Lo, he doth send his voice, a mighty voice.

*Ascribe ye strength unto God:
His excellency is over Israel,
And his strength is in the clouds.*

O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places:
The God of Israel, he giveth strength and power unto his people.

Evening

In Judah is God known:
His name is great in Israel.

*In Salem also is his tabernacle,
And his dwelling place in Zion.*

There he brake the arrows of the bow;
The shield, and the sword, and the battle.

*Glorious art thou and excellent,
From the mountains of prey.*

The stout-hearted are made a spoil,
They have slept their sleep;
And none of the men of might have found their hands.

At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, Both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

Thou, even thou, art to be feared;
And who may stand in thy sight
when once thou art angry?

*Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared, and was still,*

When God arose to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth.

*Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee:
The remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.*

Vow, and pay unto the Lord your
God:

Let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

*He shall cut off the spirit of princes:
He is terrible to the kings of the
earth.*

Twenty-eighth Sunday

Morning

Save me, O God;
For the waters are come in unto my
soul.

*I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing:
I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.*

I am weary of my crying; my throat is dried:
Mine eyes fail while I wait for my
God.

*O God, thou knowest my foolish-
ness;
And my sins are not hid from thee.*

Let not them that wait for thee be ashamed for my sake, O Lord God of hosts:

Let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

*Because for thy sake I have borne reproach;
Shame hath covered my face.*

I am become a stranger unto my brethren,
And an alien unto my mother's children.

*For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up;
And the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.*

When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting,
That was to my reproach.

*But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time:
O God, in the multitude of thy
mercy,
Hear me in the truth of thy salvation.*

Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink:

Let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

*Let not the waterflood overflow me,
Neither let the deep swallow me up;
And let not the pit shut her mouth
upon me.*

Hear me, O Lord; for thy loving-kindness is good:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies turn thou unto
me.

*And hide not thy face from thy servant;
For I am in distress; hear me speedily.*

Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it:

Deliver me because of mine enemies.

*Thou knowest my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor:
Mine adversaries are all before
thee.*

Reproach hath broken my heart;
and I am full of heaviness:

And I looked for some to take pity,
but there was none;

And for comforters, but I found none.

But I am poor and sorrowful: Let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

I will praise the name of God with a song,

And will magnify him with thanksgiving.

Evening

Lord, thou hast been favorable unto thy land;

Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

*Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people;
Thou hast covered all their sin.*

Thou hast taken away all thy wrath;
Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

*Turn us, O God of our salvation,
And cause thine indignation toward us to cease.*

Wilt thou be angry with us forever?
Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

*Wilt thou not revive us again,
That thy people may rejoice in
thee?*

Show us thy mercy, O Lord,
And grant us thy salvation.

*I will hear what God the Lord will speak;
For he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints:
But let them not turn again to folly.*

Surely his salvation is nigh them
that fear him,
That glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth are met together; Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall spring out of the earth;
And righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

*Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good;
And our land shall yield its increase.*

Righteousness shall go before him,
And shall set us in the way of his steps.

Twenty-ninth Sunday

Morning

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust:
Let me never be put to confusion.

*Deliver me in thy righteousness,
and rescue me:
Incline thine ear unto me, and save me.*

Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort:
Thou hast given commandment to
save me;

*For thou art my rock and my fortress.
Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.*

For thou art my hope, O Lord
God:
Thou art my trust from my youth.

*I am as a wonder unto many;
But thou art my strong refuge.*

My mouth shall be filled with thy praise,
And with thy honor all the day.

*Cast me not off in the time of old age;
Forsake me not when my strength faileth.*

O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me.

*But I will hope continually,
And will praise thee yet more and
more.*

My mouth shall show forth thy
righteousness,
And thy salvation all the day;

*I will go in the strength of the Lord God:
I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.*

O God, thou hast taught me from my youth;
And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

*Now also when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me
not,
Until I have showed thy strength unto this generation, Thy power to every one that is to come.*

Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high;
Thou who hast done great things,
O God, who is like unto thee?

*Thou, who hast showed me great and sore troubles,
Shalt quicken me again,
And shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.*

Thou shalt increase my greatness,
And turn again and comfort me.

*I will also praise thee with the psaltery,
Even thy truth, O my God:*

Unto thee will I sing with the harp,
O thou Holy One of Israel.

*My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee;
And my soul, which thou hast redeemed.*

Evening

He that dwelleth in the secret place
of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

*I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in him will I trust.*

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the noisome pestilence.

*He shall cover thee with his feathers,
And under his wings shalt thou trust;*

His truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,
Nor for the arrow that flieth by
day;

*Nor for the pestilence that walketh
in darkness,
Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.*

A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right
hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee.

*Only with thine eyes shalt thou
behold,
And see the reward of the wicked.*

For thou, O Lord, art my refuge!
Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;

*There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.*

For he shall give his angels charge
over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.

*They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.*

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:

The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.

*Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:
I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.*

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble:

I will deliver him, and honor him.

*With long life will I satisfy him,
And show him my salvation.*

Thirtieth Sunday

Morning

Give the king thy judgments, O God,
And thy righteousness unto the king's son.

*He shall judge thy people with righteousness,
And thy poor with judgment.*

The mountains shall bring peace to the people,
And the little hills, by righteousness.

*He shall judge the poor of the
people,
He shall save the children of the needy,
And shall break in pieces the oppressor.*

They shall fear thee as long as the sun endureth,
And so long as the moon, throughout all generations.

*He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass,
As showers that water the earth.*

In his days shall the righteous flourish,
And abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

*He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
And from the River unto the ends of the earth.*

They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him;
And his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents:

The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Yea, all kings shall fall down before him;
All nations shall serve him.

*For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth,
And the poor, that hath no helper.*

He shall have pity on the poor and needy,
And the souls of the needy he shall save.

*He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence;
And precious shall their blood be in his sight:*

And he shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba:
Prayer also shall be made for him continually;
And daily shall he be praised.

*There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains;
The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon:
And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.*

His name shall endure forever;
His name shall be continued as long as the sun:

*And men shall be blessed in
him;
All nations shall call him blessed.*

Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel,
Who only doeth wondrous things:

*And blessed be his glorious name
forever;
And let the whole earth be filled with his glory.*

Evening

It is a good thing to give thanks
unto the Lord,
And to sing praises unto thy name,
O Most High;

*To show forth thy loving-kindness
in the morning,
And thy faithfulness every night,*

Upon an instrument of ten strings,
and upon the psaltery;
Upon the harp with a solemn sound.

*For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work:
I will triumph in the works of thy hands.*

How great are thy works, O Lord!
Thy thoughts are very deep.

*A brutish man knoweth not;
Neither doth a fool understand this:*

When the wicked spring as the grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity do flourish;

*It is that they shall be destroyed
forever.
But thou, O Lord, art on high for evermore.*

For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord,
For, lo, thine enemies shall perish;
All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

*But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of a wild ox:
I shall be anointed with fresh oil.*

Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, Mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

*The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree:
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.*

Those that be planted in the house
of the Lord;
They shall flourish in the courts of our God.

*They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;
They shall be fat and flourishing:*

To show that the Lord is upright;
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Thirty-first Sunday

Morning

Truly God is good to Israel, Even to such as are of a clean
heart.

*But as for me, my feet were almost gone;
My steps had well nigh slipped.*

For I was envious at the foolish, When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

*For there are no pangs in their death;
But their strength is firm.*

They are not in trouble as other
men;
Neither are they plagued like other
men.

*Verily in vain have I cleansed my heart,
And washed my hands in innocency;*

For all the day long have I been plagued,
And chastened every morning.

*If I had said, I will speak thus;
Behold, I had been faithless to the generation of thy children.*

When I thought to know this,
It was too painful for me;

*Until I went into the sanctuary of
God,
And considered their latter end.*

Surely thou settest them in slippery places:
Thou castest them down to destruction.

*How are they become a desolation in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with terrors.*

As a dream when one awaketh,
So, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

*For my heart was grieved,
And I was pricked in my reins:*

So foolish was I, and ignorant;
I was as a beast before thee.

*Nevertheless I am continually with
thee:
Thou hast holden my right hand.*

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.

*Whom have I in heaven but
thee?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.*

My flesh and my heart faileth;
But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

*For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish:
Thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.*

But it is good for me to draw near
unto God:
I have made the Lord God my
refuge,
That I may tell of all thy works.

Evening

Oh sing unto the Lord a new song:

Sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

*Sing unto the Lord, bless his
name;
Show forth his salvation from day to day.*

Declare his glory among the heathen,
His marvelous works among all
people.

*For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised:
He is to be feared above all gods.*

For all the gods of the nations are idols;
But the Lord made the heavens.

Honor and majesty are before him: Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the peoples,
Give unto the Lord glory and
strength.

*Give unto the Lord the glory due
unto his name:
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.*

Oh worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness:
Fear before him, all the earth.

*Say among the heathen, the Lord
reigneth:
The world also is established that
it cannot be moved:
He shall judge the people righteously.*

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
Let the sea roar, and the fullness
thereof;

*Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein;
Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice*

Before the Lord; for he cometh,
For he cometh to judge the earth:

*He shall judge the world with
righteousness,
And the people with his truth.*

Thirty-second Sunday

Morning

I cried unto God with my voice, Even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

*In the day of my trouble I sought
the Lord:
My hand was stretched out in the night, and slacked not;
My soul refused to be comforted.*

I remembered God, and was troubled:
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed.

*Thou holdest mine eyes waking:
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.*

I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.

*I call to remembrance my song in the night:
I commune with mine own heart;
And my spirit maketh diligent search.*

Will the Lord cast off forever?
And will he be favorable no more?

*Is his mercy clean gone forever?
Doth his promise fail for ever-
more?*

Hath God forgotten to be gracious?

Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?

*And I said, This is my infirmity;
But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.*

I will remember the works of the
Lord;
For I will remember thy wonders of old.

*I will meditate also of all thy work,
And talk of thy doings.*

Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary:

Who is a great god like unto God?

*Thou art the God that doest wonders:
Thou hast declared thy strength
among the people.*

Thou hast with thine arm redeemed
thy people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph.

*The waters saw thee, O God;
The waters saw thee, they were afraid:*

The depths also were troubled.
The clouds poured out water;

*The skies sent out a sound:
Thine arrows also went abroad.*

The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven;
The lightnings lightened the world:
The earth trembled and shook.

*Thy way was in the sea,
And thy path in the great waters,
And thy footsteps were not known.*

Thou leddest thy people like a flock,
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Evening

Sing aloud unto God our strength:
Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

*Take a Psalm, and bring hither
the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the psaltery.*

Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
At the full moon, on our feast
day.

*For it is a statute for Israel,
And a law of the God of Jacob.*

He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony,
When he went out over the land of Egypt,
Where I heard a language that I knew not.

*I removed his shoulder from the burden:
His hands were freed from the basket.*

Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee;
I answered thee in the secret place
of thunder;
I proved thee at the waters of Meribah.

*Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee:
O Israel, if thou wouldest hearken unto me!*

There shall no strange god be in
thee;
Neither shalt thou worship any foreign god.

*I am the Lord thy God,
Which brought thee out of the land of Egypt:
Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.*

But my people would not hearken to my voice;
And Israel would none of me.

*So I let them go after the stubbornness of their heart,
That they might walk in their own counsels.*

Oh that my people would hearken
unto me,
That Israel would walk in my ways!

*He would feed them also with the finest of the wheat;
And with honey out of the rock would I satisfy thee.*

Thirty-third Sunday

Morning

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me;
For I am poor and needy.

*Preserve my soul; for I am holy:
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.*

Be merciful unto me, O Lord;
For unto thee do I cry all the day
long.

*Rejoice the soul of thy servant;
For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.*

For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive,
And plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

*Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer;
And attend unto the voice of my supplications.*

In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee;
For thou wilt answer me.

*Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord;
Neither are there any works like unto thy works.*

All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee,
O Lord;
And they shall glorify thy name.

*For thou art great, and doest wondrous things:
Thou art God alone.*

Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth:
Unite my heart to fear thy name.

*I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart;
And I will glorify thy name for evermore.*

For great is thy mercy toward
me;
And thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

*Thou, O Lord, art a God merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy and truth.*

Oh turn unto me, and have mercy
upon me;
Give thy strength unto thy servant,
And save the son of thy hand-maid.

*Show me a token for good,
That they which hate me may see it,
and be ashamed,
Because thou, Lord, hast helped me, and comforted me.*

Evening

How long, O Lord? wilt thou forget me forever?
How long wilt thou hide thy face
from me?

*How long shall I take counsel in
my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart all the day?*

How long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?
Consider and hear me, O Lord my
God:
Lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

*Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him;
Lest mine adversaries rejoice when I am moved.*

But I have trusted in thy mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

*I will sing unto the Lord,
Because he hath dealt bountifully
with me.*

The Lord loveth the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.

*Glorious things are spoken of thee,
O city of God.*

I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon as among them that know
me:
Behold, Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia:
This one was born there.

*Yea, of Zion it shall be said,
This one and that one was born in her;
And the Most High himself shall establish her.*

The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people,
This one was born there.

*As well the singers as the players shall say
All my fountains are in thee.*

Thirty-fourth Sunday

Morning

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord forever:

With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever;

Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

I have made a covenant with my chosen,

I have sworn unto David my servant:

Thy seed will I establish forever,

And build up thy throne to all generations.

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord;

Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord?

Who among the sons of the mighty is like unto the Lord?

A God greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,

And to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

O Lord God of hosts,

Who is a strong Lord, like unto thee?

And thy faithfulness is round about thee.

Thou rulest the raging of the sea: When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:

The world and the fullness thereof, thou hast founded them.

The north and the south, thou hast created them:

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name.

Thou hast a mighty arm;

Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne:

Mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound:

They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

In thy name shall they rejoice all the day;

And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

For thou art the glory of their strength;

And in thy favor our horn shall be exalted.

For the Lord is our defense;

And the Holy One of Israel is our King.

Evening

I have found David my servant; With my holy oil have I anointed him:

With whom my hand shall be established;

Mine arm also shall strengthen him.

The enemy shall not exact from him,

Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

And I will beat down his foes before him,

And plague them that hate him.

But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him;
And in my name shall his horn be exalted.

*I will set his hand also on the sea,
And his right hand on the rivers.*

He shall cry unto me, Thou art my Father,
My God, and the Rock of my salvation.

*I also will make him my firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the
earth.*

My mercy will I keep for him for
evermore;
And my covenant shall stand fast with him.

*His seed also will I make to endure
forever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.*

If his children forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgments;

*If they break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments;*

Then will I visit their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.

*But my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him,
Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.*

My covenant will I not break,
Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

*Once have I sworn by my holiness:
I will not lie unto David:*

His seed shall endure forever,
And his throne as the sun before
me.

*It shall be established forever as the moon,
And as a faithful witness in heaven.*

Thirty-fifth Sunday

Morning

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place
In all generations.

*Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.*

Thou turnest man to destruction,
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

*For a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.*

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep:
In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

*In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;
In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.*

For we are consumed by thine anger,
And by thy wrath are we troubled.

*Thou hast set our iniquities before
thee,
Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.*

For all our days are passed away
in thy wrath:
We spend our years as a tale that is told.

*The days of our years are three-score years and ten,
And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years;*

Yet is their strength labor and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

*Who knoweth the power of thine anger?
Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.*

So teach us to number our days,
That we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

*Return, O Lord; how long?
And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.*

Oh satisfy us early with thy mercy,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

*Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.*

Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory unto their children.
*And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us;
And establish thou the work of our hands upon us;
Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.*

Evening

The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice;
Let the multitude of isles be glad.

*Clouds and darkness are round about him:
Righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.*

A fire goeth before him,
And burneth up his enemies round about.

*His lightnings lightened the world:
The earth saw, and trembled.*

The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

*The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the people see his glory.*

Let all them be put to shame that serve graven images,
That boast themselves of idols:
Worship him, all ye gods.

*Zion heard and was glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoiced,
Because of thy judgments, O Lord.*

For thou, Lord, art most high above all the earth:
Thou art exalted far above all gods.

*O ye that love the Lord, hate evil:
He preserveth the souls of his saints;
He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.*

Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.

*Be glad in the Lord, ye righteous;
And give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.*

Thirty-sixth Sunday

Morning

O Lord God to whom vengeance belongeth,
Thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: Render to the proud their reward.

Lord, how long shall the wicked,
How long shall the wicked triumph?

*They utter and speak hard things:
All the workers of iniquity boast themselves.*

And they say, The Lord shall not see,
Neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

*Understand, ye brutish among the people;
And ye fools, when will ye be wise?*

He that planted the ear, shall he not hear?
He that formed the eye, shall he not see?

*He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct,
Even he that teacheth man knowledge?*

The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man,
That they are vanity.

*Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord,
And teachest out of thy law,*

That thou mayest give him rest
from the days of adversity,
Until the pit be digged for the wicked.

*For the Lord will not cast off his people,
Neither will he forsake his inheritance.*

But judgment shall return unto righteousness;
And all the upright in heart shall follow it,

*Unless the Lord had been my help,
My soul had almost dwelt in silence.*

When I said, My foot slippeth;
Thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

*In the multitude of my thoughts within me
Thy comforts delight my soul.*

Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee,
Which frameth mischief by a law?

*They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
And condemn the innocent blood.*

But the Lord hath been my defense,
And my God the rock of my refuge.

*And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own wickedness;
The Lord our God shall cut them off.*

Evening

Oh sing unto the Lord a new song;
For he hath done marvelous things:
His right hand, and his holy arm,
hath gotten him the victory.

*The Lord hath made known his salvation:
His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the heathen.*

He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel:

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

*Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth:
Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.*

Sing praises unto the Lord with the harp;
With the harp and the voice of melody.

*With trumpets and sound of cornet
Make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.*

Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein;

*Let the floods clap their hands;
Let the hills sing for joy together
Before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth:*

He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with equity.

*Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:
Sing forth the honor of his name:
Make his praise glorious.*

Say unto God, How terrible are thy works!
Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

*All the earth shall worship thee,
And shall sing unto thee;
They shall sing to thy name.*

Thirty-seventh Sunday

Morning

Hear my prayer, O Lord,
And let my cry come unto thee.

*Hide not thy face from me in the day of my distress:
Incline thine ear unto me;
In the day when I call answer me speedily.*

For my days are consumed like smoke,
And my bones are burned as a fire-brand.

*My heart is smitten and withered like grass,
For I forget to eat my bread.*

By reason of the voice of my groaning
My bones cleave to my skin.

*But thou, O Lord, shalt endure forever;
And thy remembrance unto all generations.*

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion;
For it is time to favor her,
Yea, the set time is come.

*For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,
And have pity upon her dust.*

So the heathen shall fear the name of the Lord,
And all the kings of the earth thy glory.

*When the Lord shall build up Zion;
He shall appear in his glory;*

He will regard the prayer of the destitute,
And not despise their prayer.

*This shall be written for the generation to come;
And the people which shall be created shall praise the Lord.*

For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary;
From heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

*To hear the groaning of the prisoner;
To loose those that are appointed to death;*

To declare the name of the Lord in Zion,

And his praise in Jerusalem;

When the people are gathered together,

And the kingdoms, to serve the Lord.

He weakened my strength in the way;

He shortened my days.

I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days:

Thy years are throughout all generations.

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth;

And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure;

Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment;

As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

But thou art the same,

And thy years shall have no end.

The children of thy servants shall continue,

And their seed shall be established before thee.

Evening

The Lord reigneth; let the people
tremble:

He sitteth between the cherubim;
let the earth be moved.

The Lord is great in Zion;

And he is high above all the people.

Let them praise thy great and terrible name:

For it is holy.

*The king's strength also loveth
judgment;*

Thou dost establish equity;

Thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

Exalt ye the Lord our God,
And worship at his footstool:

For he is holy.

Moses and Aaron among his priests,

And Samuel among them that call upon his name;

They called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

He spake unto them in the pillar
of cloud:

They kept his testimonies,

And the ordinance that he gave them.

Thou answeredst them, O Lord our
God:

Thou wast a God that forgavest
them,

Though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

Exalt the Lord our God,

And worship at his holy hill;

For the Lord our God is holy.

I will sing of mercy and judgment:

Unto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way:

Oh when wilt thou come unto me?

I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

I will set no wicked thing before
mine eyes:

I hate the work of them that turn aside;

It shall not cleave unto me.

A froward heart shall depart from
me:

I will know no evil thing.

Thirty-eighth Sunday

Morning

Bless the Lord, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

*Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits:*

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
Who healeth all thy diseases;

*Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;
Who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies;*

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things,
So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

*The Lord executeth righteous acts,
And judgments for all that are oppressed.*

He made known his ways unto Moses,
His acts unto the children of Israel.

*The Lord is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and plenteous in
mercy.*

He will not always chide;
Neither will he keep his anger forever.

*He hath not dealt with us after our sins,
Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.*

For as the heaven is high above
the earth,
So great is his mercy toward them
that fear him.

*As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.*

Like as a father pitieth his children,
So the Lord pitieth them that fear
him.

*For he knoweth our frame;
He remembereth that we are dust.*

As for man, his days are as grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flour-isheth.

*For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone;
And the place thereof shall know it no more.*

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
And his righteousness unto children's children;

*To such as keep his covenant,
And to those that remember his precepts to do them.*

The Lord hath prepared his throne
in the heavens;
And his kingdom ruleth over all.

*Bless the Lord, ye his angels, That excel in strength, that do his
commandments,
Harkening unto the voice of his word.*

Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts, Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

*Bless the Lord, all his works,
In all places of his dominion:
Bless the Lord, O my soul.*

Evening

The Lord reigneth; he is clothed with majesty;
The Lord is clothed with strength;
he hath girded himself therewith:
The world also is established, that
it cannot be moved.

*Thy throne is established of old:
Thou art from everlasting.*

The floods have lifted up, O Lord,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.

*More than the voices of many waters,
The mighty billows of the sea,
Is the Lord mighty on high.*

Thy testimonies are very sure:
Holiness becometh thy house,
O Lord, for evermore.

*When Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language;*

Judah became his sanctuary,
And Israel his dominion.

*The sea saw it, and fled;
The Jordan was driven back.*

The mountains skipped like rams,
And the little hills like lambs.

*What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest?
Thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?*

Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams;
And ye little hills, like lambs?

*Tremble, thou earth, at the presence
of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob,*

Which turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

Thirty-ninth Sunday

Morning

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

*O Lord my God, thou art very great;
Thou art clothed with honor and
majesty:*

Who coverest thyself with light as
with a garment;
Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;
Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters;

*Who maketh the clouds his chariot;
Who walketh upon the wings of
the wind;*

Who maketh winds his messengers;
Flames of fire his ministers;

*Who laid the foundations of the
earth,
That it should not be moved forever.*

Thou coveredst it with the deep as
with a garment;
The waters stood above the mountains.

*At thy rebuke they fled;
At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away*

(The mountains rose, the valleys sank down)
Unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

*Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over;
That they turn not again to cover
the earth.*

He sendeth forth springs into the valleys;
They run among the hills;

*They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild asses quench their thirst.*

By them the fowls of the heaven have their habitation;
They sing among the branches.

*He watereth the mountains from his chambers:
The earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.*

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle,
And herb for the service of man;

*That he may bring forth food out
of the earth,
And wine that maketh glad the heart of man,*

And oil to make his face to shine,
And bread that strengtheneth man's heart.

*The trees of the Lord are filled with sap,
The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;*

Where the birds make their nests:
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

*The high mountains are for the wild goats;
The rocks are a refuge for the conies.*

He appointed the moon for seasons:
The sun knoweth his going down.

Evening

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

*O Lord my God, thou art very great;
Thou art clothed with honor and
majesty:*

Thou makest darkness, and it is night,
Wherein all the beasts of the forest creep forth.

*The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their meat from God.*

The sun ariseth, they get them
away,
And lay them down in their dens.

*Man goeth forth unto his work
And to his labor until the evening.*

O Lord, how manifold are thy works!

In wisdom hast thou made them all:
The earth is full of thy riches.

*Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
Both small and great beasts.*

There go the ships;
There is leviathan, whom thou hast formed to play therein.

*These wait all upon thee,
That thou mayest give them their meat in due season.*

That thou givest unto them, they gather;
Thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.

*Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled;
Thou takest away their breath,
they die,
And return to their dust.*

Thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created;
And thou renewest the face of the
earth.

*The glory of the Lord shall endure
forever;
The Lord shall rejoice in his works:*

He looketh on the earth, and it
trembleth;
He toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

*I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live:
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.*

My meditation of him shall be sweet:
I will be glad in the Lord.

Fortieth Sunday

Morning

Oh give thanks unto the Lord, call
upon his name;
Make known among the people his deeds.

*Sing unto him, sing psalms unto
him;
Talk ye of all his wondrous works.*

Glory ye in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

*Seek the Lord and his strength;
Seek his face evermore.*

Remember his marvelous works that he hath done,
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

*O ye seed of Abraham his servant,
Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.*

He is the Lord our God:
His judgments are in all the
earth.

*He hath remembered his covenant
forever,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,*

The covenant which he made with Abraham,
And his oath unto Isaac,

*And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,*

Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan,
The lot of your inheritance;

When they were but a few men in number,

Yea, very few, and strangers in it.

When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people.

*He suffered no man to do them wrong;
Yea, he reprov'd kings for their
sakes,*

Saying, Touch not mine anointed
ones,
And do my prophets no harm.

*And he called for a famine upon the land;
He brake the whole staff of bread.*

He sent a man before them;
Joseph was sold for a servant:

*His feet they hurt with fetters:
He was laid in chains of iron,*

Until the time that his word came to pass,
The word of the Lord tried him.

*The king sent and loosed him;
Even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.*

He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his substance;

*To bind his princes at his pleasure,
And teach his elders wisdom.*

Israel also came into Egypt;
And Jacob sojourn'd in the land of Ham.

*And he increased his people greatly,
And made them stronger than their adversaries.*

That they might keep his statutes,
And observe his laws.
Praise ye the Lord.

Evening

The Lord said unto my lord, Sit thou at my right hand, Until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

*The Lord shall send forth the rod of thy strength out of Zion:
Rule thou in the midst of thine
enemies.*

Thy people offer themselves willingly
In the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness.

*Out of the womb of the morning
Thou hast the dew of thy youth.*

The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent:
Thou art a priest forever
After the order of Melchizedek.

The Lord at thy right hand Shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

He shall judge among the heathen,
He shall fill the places with dead bodies;
He shall wound the heads over many countries.

*He shall drink of the brook in the
way:
Therefore shall he lift up the head.*

I cried with my voice unto the
Lord;
With my voice unto the Lord did I make supplication.

*I pour out my complaint before him;
I show before him my trouble.*

When my spirit was overwhelmed
within me,
Thou knewest my path.

*In the way wherein I walked
Have they hidden a snare for me.*

Look on my right hand, and see;
For there is no man that knoweth
me:

*Refuge hath failed me;
No man careth for my soul.*

I cried unto thee, O Lord;
I said, Thou art my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.

*Attend unto my cry;
For I am brought very low:*

Deliver me from my persecutors;
For they are stronger than I.

*Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may praise thy name:*

The righteous shall compass me about;
For thou shalt deal bountifully with
me.

Forty-first Sunday

Morning

Oh give thanks unto the Lord; for
he is good;
For his mercy endureth forever.

*Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy,*

And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

*They wandered in the wilderness
in a solitary way;
They found no city to dwell in.*

Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.

*Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses,*

He led them also by a straight way,
That they might go to a city of habitation.

*Oh that men would praise the Lord
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!*

For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

*Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron,*

Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And contemned the counsel of the Most High:

*Therefore he brought down their heart with labor;
They fell down, and there was none to help.*

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he saved them out of their distresses.

*He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And brake their bands in sunder.*

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!

*For he hath broken the gates of brass,
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.*

Fools because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

*Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat;
And they draw near unto the gates of death.*

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he saveth them out of their distresses.

*He sent his word, and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.*

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!

*And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with rejoicing.*

Evening

My heart is fixed, O God;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises,
even with my glory.

*Awake, psaltery and harp:
I myself will awake right early.*

I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people;
And I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

*For thy mercy is great above the
heavens;
And thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.*

Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And thy glory above all the earth.

*That thy beloved may be delivered,
Save with thy right hand, and answer me.*

God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

*Gilead is mine; Manassch is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of my head;
Judah is my scepter.*

*Then are they glad because they be quiet;
So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.*

Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me unto Edom?

Oh that men would praise the Lord
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!

*Hast not thou cast us off, O God?
And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts.*

*Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people,
And praise him in the assembly of the elders.*

Give us help from trouble;
For vain is the help of man.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
And the water springs into dry
ground;

*Through God we shall do valiantly:
For he it is that shall tread down our enemies.*

*A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.*

Forty=second Sunday
Morning

They that go down to the sea in ships,
That do business in great waters;

He turneth the wilderness into a pool of water,
And a dry ground into water springs.

*These see the works of the Lord,
And his wonders in the deep.*

*And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,
That they may prepare a city for habitation,*

For he commandeth, and raiseth
the stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.

And sow fields, and plant vineyards,
Which may yield fruits of increase.

*They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths:
Their soul is melted because of trouble.*

*He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly;
And he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.*

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.

Again, they are diminished and brought low Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

*Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.*

*He poureth contempt upon princes,
And causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no
way.*

He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.

Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction,
And maketh him families like a flock.

*The righteous shall see it, and rejoice;
And all iniquity shall stop her mouth.*

Whoso is wise will observe these things;
Even they shall understand the loving-kindnesses of the Lord.

Evening

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes;
And I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; Yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments;
For therein do I delight.

*Incline my heart unto thy testimonies,
And not to covetousness.*

Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity,
And quicken thou me in thy way.

*Confirm unto thy servant thy word,
Which tendeth unto the fear of thee.*

Turn away my reproach which I fear;
For thy judgments are good.

*Behold, I have longed after thy precepts:
Quicken me in thy righteousness.*

Let thy mercies also come unto me,
O Lord,
Even thy salvation, according to thy word.

*So shall I have an answer for him that reproacheth me;
For I trust in thy word.*

And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth;
For I have hoped in thy judgments.

So shall I keep thy law continually Forever and ever.

And I will walk at liberty;
For I seek thy precepts.

*I will also speak of thy testimonies before kings,
And will not be ashamed.*

And I will delight myself in thy commandments,
Which I have loved.

*I will lift up my hands also unto thy commandments, which I have loved;
And I will meditate in thy statutes.*

Forty-third Sunday .

Morning

Praise ye the Lord.
I will praise the Lord with my whole heart,
In the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

The works of the Lord are great, Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is honorable and glorious;
And his righteousness endureth
forever.

*He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:
The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.*

He hath given meat unto them that
fear him:
He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

*He hath showed his people the power of his works,
That he may give them the heritage of the heathen.*

The works of his hands are truth and justice;
All his commandments are sure.

*They stand fast forever and ever;
They are done in truth and uprightness.*

He hath sent redemption unto his
people;
He hath commanded his covenant
forever:
Holy and reverend is his name.

*The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
A good understanding have all they that do his commandments:
His praise endureth forever.*

Praise ye the Lord.
Blessed is the man that feareth the
Lord,
That delighteth greatly in his commandments.

*His seed shall be mighty upon
earth:
The generation of the upright shall be blessed.*

Wealth and riches shall be in his house;
And his righteousness endureth
forever.

*Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness:
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.*

A good man showeth favor and lendeth:
He will guide his affairs with discretion.

*For he shall never be moved;
The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.*

He shall not be afraid of evil tidings:
His heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

*He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor;
His righteousness endureth forever:
His horn shall be exalted with honor.*

The wicked shall see it, and be grieved;
He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away:
The desire of the wicked shall perish.

Evening

Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes,
O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

*Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master,
As the eyes of a maid unto the hand of her mistress;*

So our eyes look unto the Lord our
God,
Until he have mercy upon us.

*Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us;
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.*

Our soul is exceedingly filled With the scorning of those that are at ease,
And with the contempt of the proud.

*If it had not been the Lord who
was on our side,
Let Israel now say,
If it had not been the Lord who
was on our side,
When men rose up against us;*

Then they had swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us:

*Then the waters had overwhelmed
us,
The stream had gone over our soul;
Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.*

Blessed be the Lord,
Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

*Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers:
The snare is broken, and we are escaped.*

Our help is in the name of the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

Forty-fourth Sunday

Morning

Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us,
But unto thy name give glory,
For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

*Wherefore should the heathen say,
Where is now their God?*

But our God is in the heavens:
He hath done whatsoever he pleased.

*Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.*

They have mouths, but they speak
not;
Eyes have they, but they see not;

*They have ears, but they hear not;
Noses have they, but they smell not;*

They have hands, but they handle
not;
Feet have they, but they walk not;
Neither speak they through their throat.

*They that make them are like unto
them;*

Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

O Israel, trust thou in the Lord:
He is their help and their shield.

*O house of Aaron, trust ye in the
Lord:*

He is their help and their shield.

Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the
Lord:

He is their help and their shield.

*The Lord hath been mindful of us;
he will bless us:*

He will bless the house of Israel;

He will bless the house of Aaron.
He will bless them that fear the
Lord,

Both small and great.

*The Lord increase you more and
more,*

You and your children.

Blessed are ye of the Lord,
Which made heaven and earth.

*The heavens are the heavens of the
Lord;*

But the earth hath he given to the children of men.

The dead praise not the Lord, Neither any that go down into silence;

*But we will bless the Lord
From this time forth and for ever-
more.*

Praise ye the Lord.

Evening

They that trust in the Lord Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth forever.

*As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,
So the Lord is round about his
people
From this time forth and for ever-
more.*

For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous;
Lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

*Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good,
And to them that are upright in their hearts.*

But as for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways,
The Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity.
Peace be upon Israel.

*When the Lord brought back those that returned to Zion,
We were like unto them that dream.*

Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing:

*Then said they among the heathen,
The Lord hath done great things for them.*

The Lord hath done great things
for us,
Whereof we are glad.

*Turn again our captivity, O Lord,
As the streams in the South.*

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing seed for sowing, Shall doubtless come again with joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

Forty-fifth Sunday

Morning

I love the Lord, because he hath heard
My voice and my supplications.

*Because he hath inclined his ear
unto me,
Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.*

The sorrows of death compassed
me,
And the pains of hell gat hold upon
me:
I found trouble and sorrow.

*Then called I upon the name of
the Lord:
O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my
soul.*

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous;
Yea, our God is merciful.

*The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he saved
me.*

Return unto thy rest, O my soul;
For the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

*For thou hast delivered my soul
from death,
Mine eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.*

I will walk before the Lord
In the land of the living.
I believed, therefore have I spoken:

*I was greatly afflicted:
I said in my haste,
All men are liars.*

What shall I render unto the Lord
For all his benefits toward me?

*I will take the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the Lord.*

I will pay my vows unto the Lord
Now in the presence of all his people.

*Precious in the sight of the Lord
Is the death of his saints.*

O Lord, truly I am thy servant:
I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid;
Thou hast loosed my bonds.

*I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call upon the name of the Lord.*

I will pay my vows unto the
Lord
Now in the presence of all his people,

*In the courts of the Lord's house,
In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.*

Praise ye the Lord.

Evening

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.

*Lord, hear my voice:
Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.*

If thou, Lord, shouldst mark in-iquities,
O Lord, who could stand?

*But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared.*

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait,
And in his word do I hope.

*My soul waiteth for the Lord
More than watchmen wait for the
morning;
Yea, more than watchmen for the
morning.*

O Israel, hope in the Lord;
For with the Lord there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.

*And he will redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.*

Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty;
Neither do I exercise myself in great matters,
Or in things too wonderful for me.

*Surely I have stilled and quieted
my soul;
Like a weaned child with his mother,
Like a weaned child is my soul
within me.*

O Israel, hope in the Lord
From this time forth and for ever-
more.

Forty-sixth Sunday

Morning

Oh give thanks unto the Lord; for
he is good;
For his mercy endureth forever.

*Let Israel now say,
That his mercy endureth forever.*

Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his mercy endureth forever.

*Let them now that fear the Lord say,
That his mercy endureth forever.*

Out of my distress I called upon the
Lord:
The Lord answered me and set me in a large place.

The Lord is on my side; I will not fear:

What can man do unto me?

It is better to trust in the Lord
Than to put confidence in man.

*It is better to trust in the Lord
Than to put confidence in princes.*

The Lord is my strength and
song;
And he is become my salvation.

The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous:

*The right hand of the Lord doeth
valiantly.*

The right hand of the Lord is exalted:

The right hand of the Lord doeth
valiantly.

*I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of the Lord.*

The Lord hath chastened me sore;
But he hath not given me over unto death.

Open to me the gates of righteousness:

*I will enter into them, I will praise
the Lord.*

This is the gate of the Lord;
The righteous shall enter into it.

*I will praise thee; for thou hast heard me,
And art become my salvation.*

The stone which the builders rejected
Is become the head of the corner.

*This is the Lord's doing;
It is marvelous in our eyes.*

This is the day which the Lord hath made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.

*Save now, we beseech thee, O Lord:
O Lord, we beseech thee, send now prosperity.*

Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

We have blessed you out of the house of the Lord.

Thou art my God, and I will praise thee:

*Thou art my God, I will exalt
thee.*

Oh give thanks unto the Lord; for
he is good;

For his mercy endureth forever.

Evening

Lord, remember for David
All his affliction;

*How he sware unto the Lord,
And vowed unto the Mighty One
of Jacob:*

Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house,
Nor go up into my bed;

*I will not give sleep to mine eyes,
Or slumber to mine eyelids;*

Until I find out a place for the
Lord,

A habitation for the Mighty One of Jacob.

*Lo, we heard of it in Ephrathah:
We found it in the field of the wood.*

We will go into his tabernacles;
We will worship at his footstool.

*Arise, O Lord, into thy resting
place;
Thou, and the ark of thy strength.*

Let thy priests be clothed with
righteousness;
And let thy saints shout for joy.

For thy servant David's sake Turn not away the face of thine anointed.

The Lord hath sworn unto David in truth;
He will not turn from it:
Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

*If thy children will keep my covenant
And my testimony that I shall teach them,
Their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.*

For the Lord hath chosen Zion;
He hath desired it for his habitation.

This is my resting place forever: Here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

I will abundantly bless her provision:
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

*Her priests also will I clothe with salvation;
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.*

There will I make the horn of David to bud:
I have ordained a lamp for mine
anointed.

Forty-seventh Sunday

Morning

Praise ye the Lord.
Praise ye the name of the Lord;

*Praise him, O ye servants of the
Lord,
Ye that stand in the house of the
Lord,
In the courts of the house of our
God.*

Praise ye the Lord; for the Lord is
good:
Sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

*For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself,
And Israel for his own possession.*

For I know that the Lord is great,
And that our Lord is above all gods.

*Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that hath he done,
In heaven and in earth, in the seas
and in all deeps;*

Who causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
Who maketh lightnings for the rain;
Who bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures;

*Who smote the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and beast;*

Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants;

*Who smote many nations,
And slew mighty kings,*

Sihon king of the Amorites,
And Og king of Bashan,
And all the kingdoms of Canaan.

*And gave their land for a heritage,
A heritage unto Israel his people.*

Thy name, O Lord, endureth forever;
Thy memorial, O Lord, throughout
all generations.

*For the Lord will judge his people,
And repent himself concerning his servants.*

The idols of the heathen are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.

*They have mouths, but they speak
not;*

Eyes have they, but they see not;

They have ears, but they hear not;
Neither is there any breath in their mouths.

They that make them shall be like unto them;

*Yea, every one that trusteth in
them.*

O house of Israel, bless ye the Lord:
O house of Aaron, bless ye the
Lord:

*O house of Levi, bless ye the Lord:
Ye that fear the Lord, bless ye the
Lord.*

Blessed be the Lord out of Zion,
Which dwelleth at Jerusalem.
Praise ye the Lord.

Evening

Hear my prayer, O Lord; give ear to my applications:

In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

And enter not into judgment with thy servant;

For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my
soul;

He hath smitten my life down to the ground:

He hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

*Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed
within me;*

My heart within me is desolate.

I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all thy works;
I muse on the work of thy hands.

*I spread forth my hands unto
thee:*

My soul thirsteth after thee, as a weary land.

Make haste to answer me, O Lord;
my spirit faileth:

Hide not thy face from me,
Lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning;

For in thee do I trust:

Cause me to know the way wherein
I should walk;

For I lift up my soul unto thee.

*Deliver me, O Lord, from mine
enemies:*

I flee unto thee to hide me.

Teach me to do thy will;

For thou art my God:

Thy Spirit is good;

Lead me in the land of uprightness.

Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name's
sake:

In thy righteousness bring my soul
out of trouble.

Forty-eighth Sunday

Morning

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising;

Thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou searchest out my path and my lying down,

And art acquainted with all my ways.

*For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.*

Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid thine hand upon me.

*Such knowledge is too wonderful
for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.*

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

*If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there;
If I make my bed in hell, behold,
thou art there.*

If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts
of the sea;

*Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.*

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me,
And the light about me shall be
night;

*Yea, the darkness hideth not from
thee,
But the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.*

I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:

*Marvelous are thy works;
And that my soul knoweth right well.*

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!

*If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
When I awake, I am still with thee.*

Surely thou wilt slay the wicked,
O God:

Depart from me therefore, ye bloodthirsty men.

*For they speak against thee wickedly,
And thine enemies take thy name in vain.*

Search me, O God, and know my
heart:

Try me, and know my thoughts;

*And see if there be any wicked way
in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.*

Evening

Blessed be the Lord my strength,
Which teacheth my hands to war,
And my fingers to fight:

*My goodness, and my fortress,
My high tower, and my deliverer;*

My shield, and he in whom I take
refuge;
Who subdueth my people under me.

*Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him?
Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?*

Man is like to vanity:
His days are as a shadow that passeth away.

*Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down:
Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.*

Cast forth lightning, and scatter
them;
Send out thine arrows, and discomfit them.

*Stretch forth thy hand from above;
Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,*

Out of the hand of aliens;
Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And whose right hand is a right
hand of falsehood.

*I will sing a new song unto thee,
O God:
Upon a psaltery of ten strings will
I sing praises unto thee.*

Thou art he that giveth salvation unto kings;
Who delivereth David his servant
from the hurtful sword.

*Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of aliens,
Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And whose right hand is a right
hand of falsehood.*

When our sons shall be as plants grown up in their youth,
And our daughters as corner stones
hewn after the fashion of a palace;

*When our garners are full, affording all manner of store,
And our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;*

When our oxen are well laden;
When there is no breaking in, and no going forth,
And no outcry in our streets:

*Happy is the people that is in such a case;
Yea, happy is the people whose God is the Lord.*

Forty-ninth Sunday

Morning

I will extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name forever
and ever.

*Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name forever and ever.*

Great is the Lord, and greatly to
be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.

*One generation shall praise thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.*

Of the glorious majesty of thine
honor,
And of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.

*And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts;
And I will declare thy greatness.*

They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.

*The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion;
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.*

The Lord is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.

*All thy works shall praise thee, O
Lord;
And thy saints shall bless thee.*

They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power;

*To make known to the sons of men
his mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of his kingdom.*

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth
throughout all generations.

*The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that be bowed down.*

The eyes of all wait for thee;
And thou givest them their food in due season.

*Thou openest thine hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.*

The Lord is righteous in all his ways,
And holy in all his works.

*The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
To all that call upon him in truth.*

He will fulfill the desire of them
that fear him;
He also will hear their cry and will save them.

*The Lord preserveth all them that love him;
But all the wicked will he destroy.*

My mouth shall speak the praise of
the Lord;
And let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Evening

God is my King of old, Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

*Thou didst divide the sea by thy
strength:
Thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.*

Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces;
Thou gavest him to be food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

*Thou didst cleave fountain and flood:
Thou driedst up mighty rivers.*

The day is thine, the night also is thine:
Thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

*Thou hast set all the borders of the
earth:*

Thou hast made summer and winter.

Remember this, that the enemy
hath reproached, O Lord,
And that a foolish people hath blasphemed thy name.

Oh deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the wild beast:

Forget not the life of thy poor forever.

Have respect unto the covenant;
For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of violence.

*Oh let not the oppressed return
ashamed:*

Let the poor and needy praise thy name.

Arise, O God, plead thine own cause:

Remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee all the day.

Forget not the voice of thine adversaries:

The tumult of those that rise up against thee ascendeth continually.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my
prayer,
Give ear, O God of Jacob.

*O Lord of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusteth in
thee.*

Fiftieth Sunday

Morning

Praise ye the Lord;
For it is good to sing praises unto
our God;
For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

*The Lord doth build up Jerusalem;
He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.*

He healeth the broken in heart,
And bindeth up their wounds.

*He counteth the number of the stars;
He calleth them all by their names.*

Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
His understanding is infinite.

*The Lord lifteth up the meek:
He casteth the wicked down to the ground.*

Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving;
Sing praises upon the harp unto
our God,

*Who covereth the heavens with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon
the mountains.*

He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.

*He delighteth not in the strength of the horse:
He taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man.*

The Lord taketh pleasure in them
that fear him,
In those that hope in his mercy.

*Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem;
Praise thy God, O Zion.*

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;
He hath blessed thy children within
thee.

*He maketh peace in thy borders;
He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.*

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth;
His word runneth very swiftly.

*He giveth snow like wool;
He scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.*

He casteth forth his ice like morsels:
Who can stand before his cold?

*He sendeth out his word, and melteth them:
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.*

He showeth his word unto Jacob,
His statutes and his ordinances unto Israel.

*He hath not dealt so with any nation;
And as for his ordinances, they have not known them.
Praise ye the Lord.*

Evening

O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance;

*Thy holy temple have they defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.*

The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be food unto the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

*Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem;
And there was none to bury them.*

We are become a reproach to our neighbors,
A scoffing and derision to them that are round about us.

*How long, O Lord? wilt thou be angry forever?
Shall thy jealousy burn like fire?*

Remember not against us the iniquities of our forefathers:
 Let thy tender mercies speedily meet us;
 For we are brought very low.

*Help us, O God of our salvation,
 for the glory of thy name;
 And deliver us, and forgive our sins,
 for thy name's sake.*

Wherefore should the heathen say,
 Where is their God?
 Let the avenging of thy servants' blood that is shed
 Be known among the nations before our eyes.

*Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee:
 According to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die;*

So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture
 Will give thee thanks forever:
 We will show forth thy praise to all generations.

Fifty-first Sunday

Morning

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
 Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock;
 Thou that sittest between the cherubim, shine forth.

*Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy might,
 And come to save us.*

Turn us again, O God;
 And cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

*O Lord God of hosts,
 How long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?*

Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears,
 And givest them tears to drink in large measure.

*Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbors;
 And our enemies laugh among themselves.*

Turn again, O God of hosts;
 And cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

*Thou broughtest a vine out of Egypt:
 Thou didst drive out the heathen, and plantedst it.*

Thou preparedst room before it,
 And it took deep root, and filled the land.

*The hills were covered with the shadow of it,
 And the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.*

It sent out its boughs unto the sea,
 And its branches unto the River.

*Why hast thou broken down its hedges,
 So that all they that pass by the way do pluck it?*

The boar out of the wood doth waste it,
 And the wild beasts of the field feed on it.

*Turn again, we beseech thee, O God of hosts:
 Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine,*

And the stock which thy right hand planted,
 And the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

*It is burned with fire, it is cut down:
They perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.*

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand,
Upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

*So will we not go back from thee:
Quicken thou us, and we will call upon thy name.*

Turn again, O Lord God of hosts; Cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

Evening

The Lord reigneth; let the people
tremble:
He sitteth between the cherubim;
let the earth be moved.

*The Lord is great in Zion;
And he is high above all the peoples.*

Let them praise thy great and terrible name:
For it is holy.

*The king's strength also loveth
judgment;
Thou dost establish equity;
Thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.*

Exalt ye the Lord our God,
And worship at his footstool:
For he is holy.

*Moses and Aaron among his
priests,
And Samuel among them that call
upon his name;*

They called upon the Lord, and he
answered them.
He spake unto them in the pillar
of cloud:

*They kept his testimonies,
And the ordinance that he gave them.*

Thou answeredst them, O Lord our
God:

Thou wast a God that forgavest
them,
Though thou tookest vengeance of
their doings.

*Exalt ye the Lord our God,
And worship at his holy hill;
For the Lord our God is holy.*

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord,
all ye lands.

Serve the Lord with gladness: Come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord, he is God:
It is he that hath made us, and we are his;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

*Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:*

Give thanks unto him, and bless his
name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy
endureth forever,
And his truth unto all generations.

Fifty-second Sunday

Morning

Give ear, O my people, to my law:
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

*I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings of old,*

Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.

*We will not hide them from their children,
Telling to the generation to come the praises of the Lord,
And his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.*

For he established a testimony in
Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,

*Which he commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to their children;*

That the generation to come might know them, even the children that should be born;
Who should arise and tell them to their children,

*That they might set their hope in
God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep his commandments,*

And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,

*A generation that set not their heart aright,
And whose spirit was not steadfast with God.*

Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

*He divided the sea, and caused the waters to pass through;
And he made the waters to stand as a heap.*

In the daytime also he led them with a cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.

*He clave rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.*

He brought streams also out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.

*Yet went they on still to sin against
him,*

To rebel against the Most High in the desert.

And they tempted God in their
heart
By asking food according to their desire.

*Yea, they spake against God;
They said, Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?*

Behold, he smote the rock, so that waters gushed out,
And streams overflowed;

*Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?*

Therefore the Lord heard, and was
wroth;
And a fire was kindled against
Jacob,
And anger also went up against Israel;

*Because they believed not in God,
And trusted not in his salvation.*

Yet he commanded the skies above,
And opened the doors of heaven;

*And he rained down manna upon them to eat,
And gave them food from heaven.*

Man did eat the bread of the mighty:
He sent them food to the full.

*And they remembered that God was their rock,
And the Most High God their Redeemer.*

Evening

Praise ye the Lord.
Oh give thanks unto the Lord; for
he is good;
For his mercy endureth forever.

*Who can utter the mighty acts of
the Lord,
Or show forth all his praise?*

Blessed are they that keep justice,
And he that doeth righteousness at all times.

*Remember me, O Lord, with the favor that thou bearest unto thy people;
Oh visit me with thy salvation,*

That I may see the prosperity of thy chosen,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation,
That I may glory with thine inheritance.

*We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.*

Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt;
They remembered not the multitude of thy mercies,
But were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

*Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
That he might make his mighty power to be known.*

He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up:
So he led them through the depths,
as through a wilderness.

*And he saved them from the hand
of him that hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.*

And the waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left.

*Then believed they his words;
They sang his praise.*

Save us, O Lord our God,
And gather us from among the heathen,

*To give thanks unto thy holy
name,
And to triumph in thy praise.*

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel,
From everlasting even to everlasting.

*And let all the people say, Amen.
Praise ye the Lord.*

Fifty-third Sunday

Morning

Praise ye the Lord.
Praise, O ye servants of the Lord,
Praise the name of the Lord.

*Blessed be the name of the Lord
From this time forth and for ever-
more.*

From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same
The Lord's name is to be praised.

*The Lord is high above all nations,
And his glory above the heavens.*

Who is like unto the Lord our
God,
That hath his seat on high,

*That humbleth himself to behold
The things that are in heaven and in the earth?*

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust,
And lifteth up the needy out of the dunghill;

*That he may set him with princes,
Even with the princes of his people.*

He maketh the barren woman to keep house,
And to be a joyful mother of children.
Praise ye the Lord.

I will praise thee with my whole heart:

Before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.

I will worship toward thy holy temple,

And praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth:

For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

In the day that I cried thou answeredst me,

Thou strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord,

For they have heard the words of thy mouth.

Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the Lord;

For great is the glory of the Lord.

For though the Lord is high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly;

But the proud he knoweth from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me;

Thou shalt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies,

And thy right hand shall save me.

The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me:

Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever;

Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

Evening

Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth up,

Let Israel now say,

Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth up:

Yet they have not prevailed against me.

The plowers plowed upon my back; They made long their furrows.

The Lord is righteous:

He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

Let them be put to shame and turned backward,

All they that hate Zion.

Let them be as the grass upon the housetops;

Which withereth before it groweth up;

Wherewith the reaper filleth not his hand,

Nor he that bindeth sheaves, his bosom:

Neither do they that go by say, The blessing of the Lord be upon you;

We bless you in the name of the Lord.

Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord,

That walketh in his ways.

For thou shalt eat the labor of thy hands:

Happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine, In the innermost parts of thy house;

Thy children like olive plants, Round about thy table.

Behold, thus shall the man be blessed

That feareth the Lord.

The Lord shall bless thee out of Zion:

And thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children.

Peace be upon Israel.

Readings for Special Days

First Reading

Christmas

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light.

They that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased their joy:

They joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder,

The rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken as in the day of Midian.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given:

And the government shall be upon his shoulder:

And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end,

Upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom.

To establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness

From henceforth and forever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse,

And a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit;

And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him,

The spirit of wisdom and understanding;

The spirit of counsel and might,

The spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes,

Neither decide after the hearing of

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor,

And decide with equity for the meek of the earth;

And he shall smite the oppressor with the rod of his mouth

And with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist,

And faithfulness the girdle of his loins

And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, And the leopard shall lie down with the kid;

And the calf and the young lion and the fatted together;

And a little child shall lead them.

And the cow and the bear shall feed; Their young ones shall lie down together;

And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp,

And the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;

For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord,

As the waters cover the sea.

Second Reading

Palm Sunday

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion, Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem:

Behold thy King cometh unto thee; He is just and having salvation;

Lowly, and riding upon an ass, Even upon a colt, the foal of an ass.

And he shall speak peace unto the nations:

And his dominion shall be from sea to sea,

And from the River to the ends of the earth.

Thou art fairer than the children of men;
Grace is poured into thy lips:
Therefore God hath blessed thee forever.

*Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O mighty one,
Thy glory and thy majesty.*

And in thy majesty ride on prosperously,
Because of truth and meekness and righteousness.

*Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever.
A scepter of equity is the scepter of thy kingdom.*

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion,
Get thee up into the high mountain.

O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem Lift up thy voice with strength;

Lift it up, be not afraid;
Say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God.

*How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings,
That publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation;
That sayeth unto Zion, Thy God reigneth.*

Third Reading

Good Friday

Who hath believed our report?
And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

*For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant,
And as a root out of a dry ground:*

He hath no form nor comeliness,
And when we shall see him there is no beauty that we should desire him.

*He is despised and rejected of men;
A man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief:*

And as one from whom men hide the face

He was despised, and we esteemed him not.

*Surely he hath borne our griefs
And carried our sorrows:*

Yet we did esteem him stricken,
Smitten of God and afflicted.

*But he was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities.*

The chastisement of our peace was upon him,

And with his stripes we are healed.

*All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned every one to his own way;*

And the Lord hath laid on him
The iniquity of us all.

*He was oppressed, yet he humbled himself
And opened not his mouth.*

As a lamb that is led to the slaughter,

And as a sheep that before her shearers is dumb;

So he opened not his mouth.

By oppression and judgment he was taken away;

And as for his generation, who among them considered,

That he was cut off out of the land of the living?

For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

And he made his grave with the wicked,

And with the rich in his death;

Although he had done no violence,
Neither was any deceit in his mouth,
Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him:

He hath put him to grief.

Fourth Reading

Easter

Now is Christ risen from the dead,
And become the first fruits of them that slept.

*For since by man came death,
By man came also the resurrection of the dead.*

For as in Adam all die,
Even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

*But some man will say, How are the dead raised up?
And with what body do they come?*

All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, Another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

*There are also celestial bodies and bodies terrestrial:
But the glory of the celestial is one,
and the glory of the terrestrial is another.*

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon,
And another glory of the stars, for one star differeth from another in glory.

So also is the resurrection of the dead.

It is sown in corruption;
It is raised in incorruption:

*It is sown in dishonor;
It is raised in glory:*

It is sown in weakness;
It is raised in power:

*It is sown a natural body;
It is raised a spiritual body.*

There is a natural body,
There is a spiritual body.

*The first man Adam was made a living soul;
The last Adam was made a quickening spirit.*

Behold I show you a mystery;
We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

*For this corruptible must put on incorruption,
And this mortal must put on immortality.*

Thanks be to God, which giveth us
the victory
Through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, be ye steadfast, unmovable, Always abounding in the work of the Lord.

Forasmuch as ye know that your labor
Is not in vain in the Lord.

Fifth Reading The Nation

Hear, O Israel:
The Lord our God is one Lord:

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God With all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

And these words, which I command thee this day,
Shall be in thine heart:

*And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children,
And thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house;*

And when thou walkest by the way,
And when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

*And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand,
And they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.*

And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house
And on thy gates.

*And it shall be, when the Lord thy God shall have brought thee Into the land which he sware unto thy fathers,
To Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob,*

To give thee great and goodly cities,
Which thou buildest not,

And houses full of good things Which thou filledst not,

And wells digged
Which thou diggedst not,

*Vineyards and olive trees
Which thou plantedst not,*

When thou shalt have eaten and be full,
Beware lest thou forget the Lord.

*Behold the days come, saith the Lord,
That I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel.*

I will put my law in their inward parts,
And in their heart will I write it.

*And I will be their God,
And they shall be my people.*

And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor,
And every man his brother, saying,
Know the Lord;

*For they shall all know me,
From the least unto the greatest,
Saith the Lord.*

Blessed be the Lord, the God of our fathers,
From everlasting even to everlasting.

Sixth Reading Thanksgiving Day

Praise ye the Lord;
For it is good to sing praises unto our
God;

For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving;

*Sing praises upon the harp unto
our God.*

Who covereth the heaven with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

*He giveth to the beast his food
And to the young ravens which cry.*

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem,
Praise thy God, O Zion.

*For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates,
He hath blessed thy children within
thee.*

He maketh peace in thy borders;
He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

*Happy art thou, O Israel;
Who is like unto thee, a people saved by the Lord?*

And Israel dwelleth in safety,
And full of the blessing of the Lord.

*The eternal God is thy dwelling
place,
And underneath are the everlasting arms.*

O give thanks unto the Lord;
Sing unto him, sing praises unto
him,

*For the precious things of heaven,
for the dew,
And for the deep that coucheth beneath.*

And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun,
And for the precious things put forth
by the moon,

*And for the chief things of the ancient mountains,
And for the precious things of the everlasting hills,
And for the precious things of the earth and its fullness.*

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord;
Praise ye the Lord.

Seventh Reading

Missions

Arise, shine; for thy light is come,
And the glory of the Lord is risen
upon thee.

*For behold darkness shall cover the
earth,
And gross darkness the peoples.*

But upon thee shall the Lord arise,
And his glory shall be seen upon
thee.

*And nations shall come to thy light,
And kings to the brightness of thy rising.*

Lift up thine eyes round about, and see.

They all gather themselves together,
they come to thee.

*Who are these that fly as a cloud,
And as doves to their windows?*

Surely the isles shall wait for me
And the ships of Tarshish first,

*To bring thy sons from jar,
Their silver and gold with them,*

Unto the name of the Lord thy God,
And to the Holy One of Israel,
For he hath glorified thee.

Thy gates also shall be open continually,

They shall not be shut day nor night;

That men may bring unto thee the wealth of the nations
And their kings led with them.

*The glory of Lebanon shall come
unto thee,*

The fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together,

To beautify the place of my sanctuary,
And that I may make the place of my feet glorious.

In the latter days it shall come to pass

That the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains,

And it shall be exalted above the hills.

And peoples shall flow to it,
And many nations shall go and say:

Come and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord

And to the house of the God of Jacob:

And he will teach us his ways,
And we will walk in his paths.

Eighth Reading

Education

Surely there is a mine for silver
And a place for gold which they refine.

*Iron is taken out of the earth,
And brass is molten out of the stone.*

Man setteth an end to darkness
And searcheth out to the furthest bound

The stones of thick darkness, and of the shadow of death:

He putteth forth his hand upon the flinty rock;

He overturneth the mountains by the roots.

He cutteth out channels among the rocks;

And his eye seeth every precious thing.

He bindeth the streams that they trickle not;

And the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

But where shall wisdom be found?

And where is the place of understanding?

Man knoweth not the price thereof;

Neither is it found in the land of the living.

The deep saith, It is not in me;

And the sea saith, It is not with me.

It cannot be gotten for gold,

Neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir,

With the precious onyx or sapphire.

Whence then cometh wisdom?

And where is the place of understanding?

Doth not wisdom cry,

And understanding put forth her voice?

In the top of high places by the way,
Where the paths meet, she standeth;

Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,

At the coming in of the doors, she crieth aloud:

Receive instruction, and not silver:

And knowledge rather than choice gold.

For wisdom is better than rubies;

And all things that may be desired are not to be compared unto her.

wisdom,

And to depart from evil is understanding.

Baptism

[Let every adult person and the parents of every child to be baptized, have the choice of either sprinkling, pouring, or immersion]
[We will on no account whatever make a charge for administering Baptism.]

Order for the Administration of Baptism to Infants

The Minister, coming to the Font, which is to be filled with pure Water, shall use the following:

DEARLY BELOVED, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, and that our Saviour Christ saith, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that having, of his bounteous mercy, redeemed this child by the blood of his Son, he will grant that he, being baptized with water, may also be baptized with the Holy Ghost, be received into Christ's holy Church, and become a lively Member of the same.

Then shall the Minister say:

Let us pray.

Almighty and Everlasting God, who of thy great mercy hast condescended to enter into covenant relations with man, wherein thou hast included children as partakers of its gracious benefits, declaring that of such is thy kingdom; and in thy ancient Church didst appoint divers baptisms, figuring thereby the renewing of the Holy Ghost; and by thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ gavest commandment to thy holy Apostles to go into all the world and disciple all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: we beseech thee, that of thine infinite mercy thou wilt look upon this child: wash him and sanctify him; that he, being saved by thy grace, may be received into Christ's holy Church, and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in love, may so overcome the evils of this present world that finally he may attain to everlasting life, and reign with thee, world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Merciful God, grant that all carnal affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is dedicated to thee by our office and ministry may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Almighty, Everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, regard, we beseech thee, our supplications. Sanctify this water for this Holy Sacrament; and grant that this child, now to be baptized, may receive the fullness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister address the Parents or Guardians as follows:

Dearlly Beloved, forasmuch as this child is now presented by you for Christian Baptism, you must remember that it is your part and duty to see that he be taught, as soon as he shall be able to learn, the nature and end of this Holy Sacrament. And that he may know these things the better, you shall call upon him to give reverent attendance upon the appointed means of grace, such as the ministry of the word, and the public and private worship of God; and further, you shall provide that he shall read the Holy Scriptures, and learn the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Catechism, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health, in order that he may be brought up to lead a virtuous and holy life, remembering always that

Baptism

Baptism doth represent unto us that inward purity which disposeth us to follow the example of our Saviour Christ; that as he died and rose again for us, so should we, who are baptized, die unto sin and rise again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness.

Do you therefore solemnly engage to fulfill these duties, so far as in you lies, the Lord being your helper?

Ans. We do.

Then shall the People stand up, and the Minister shall say:

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Mark. [Chap. 10. 13-16.]

They brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Then the Minister shall take the Child into his hands, and say to the friends of the Child:

Name this child.

And then, naming it after them, he shall sprinkle or pour Water upon it, or, if desired, immerse it in Water, saying:

N., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the Minister offer the following Prayer, the People kneeling:

O God of infinite mercy, the Father of all the faithful seed, be pleased to grant unto this child an understanding mind and a sanctified heart. May thy providence lead him through the dangers, temptations, and ignorance of his youth, that he may never run into folly, nor into the evils of an unbridled appetite. We pray thee so to order the course of his life that, by good education, by holy examples, and by thy restraining and renewing grace, he may be led to serve thee faithfully all his days; so that, when he has glorified thee in his generation, and has served the Church on earth, he may be received into thine eternal kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and Most Merciful Father, let thy loving mercy and compassion descend upon these, thy servant and handmaid, the parents [or guardians] of this child. Grant unto them, we beseech thee, thy Holy Spirit, that they may, like Abraham, command their household to keep the way of the Lord. Direct their actions, and sanctify their hearts, words, and purposes, that their whole family may be united to our Lord Jesus Christ in the bands of faith, obedience, and charity; and that they all, being in this life thy holy children by adoption and grace, may be admitted into the Church of the firstborn in heaven, through the merits of thy dear Son, our Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

Then may the Minister offer extemporary Prayer.

Then shall be said, all kneeling:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Order for the Administration of Baptism to such as are of Riper Years

DEARLY BELOVED, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin; and that which is born of the flesh is flesh, and they that are in the flesh cannot please God, but live in sin, committing many actual transgressions; and our Saviour Christ saith, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God: I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant to these persons that which by nature they cannot have; that they, being baptized with water, may also be baptized with the Holy Ghost, and, being received into Christ's holy Church, may continue lively Members of the same.

The Ritual

Then shall the Minister say:

Let us pray.

Almighty and Immortal God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succor, the life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead: we call upon thee for these persons, that they, coming to thy Holy Baptism, may also be filled with thy Holy Spirit. Receive them, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: so give now unto us that ask; let us that seek, find; open the gate unto us that knock; that these persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised, by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the People stand up, and the Minister shall say:

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. John. [Chap. 3. 1-8.]

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is everyone that is born of the Spirit.

Then the Minister shall speak to the Persons to be baptized on this wise:

Well Beloved, who have come hither desiring to receive Holy Baptism, you have heard how the Congregation hath prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you, to bless you, and to give you the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. And our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his holy word to grant all those things that we have prayed for: which promise he for his part will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, you must also faithfully, for your part, promise in the presence of this whole Congregation, that you will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy word, and obediently keep his commandments.

Then shall the Minister demand of each of the Persons to be baptized:

Quest. Dost thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Ans. I renounce them all.

Quest. Dost thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son our Lord; and that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he rose again the third day; that he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic* Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and everlasting life after death?

Ans. All this I steadfastly believe.

Quest. Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

Ans. Such is my desire.

*The one universal Church of Christ.

Reception of Members

Quest. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Ans. I will endeavor so to do, God being my helper.

Then shall the Minister say:

O Merciful God, grant that all carnal affections may die in these persons, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that they, being here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Almighty, Everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; regard, we beseech thee, our supplications; and grant that the persons now to be baptized may receive the fullness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister ask the name of each Person to be baptized, and shall sprinkle or pour Water upon him (or, if he shall desire it, shall immerse him in Water), saying:

N., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall be said the Lord's Prayer, all kneeling:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Then may the Minister conclude with ex-temporary Prayer.

Reception of Members

Form for Receiving Persons into the Church as Probationers

Those who are to be received into the Church as Probationers shall be called forward by name, and the Minister, addressing the Congregation, shall say:

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN, that none may be admitted hastily into the Church, we receive all persons seeking fellowship with us on profession of faith into a preparatory membership on trial; in which proof may be made, both to themselves and to the Church, of the sincerity and depth of their convictions and of the strength of their purpose to lead a new life.

The persons here present desire to be so admitted. You will hear their answers to the questions put to them, and if you make no objection they will be received.

It is needful, however, that you be reminded of your responsibility, as having previously entered this holy fellowship, and as now representing the Church into which they seek admission. Remembering their inexperience, and how much they must learn in order to become good soldiers of Jesus Christ, see to it that they find in you holy examples of life, and loving help in the true serving of their Lord and ours. I beseech you so to order your own lives that these new disciples may take no detriment from you, but that it may ever be cause for thanksgiving to God that they were led into this fellowship.

Then addressing the Persons seeking Admission on Probation, the Minister shall say:

Dearly Beloved, you have, by the grace of God, made your decision to follow Christ and to serve him. Your confidence in so doing is not to be based on any notion of fitness or worthiness in yourselves, but solely on the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, and on his death and intercession for us.

The Ritual

That the Church may know your purpose, you will answer the questions I am now to ask you.

Have you an earnest desire to be saved from your sins?

Ans. I have.

Will you guard yourselves against all things contrary to the teaching of God's word, and endeavor to lead a holy life, following the commandments of God?

Ans. I will endeavor so to do.

Are you purposed to give reverent attendance upon the appointed means of grace in the ministry of the word, and in the private and public worship of God?

Ans. I am so determined, with the help of God.

No objection being offered, the Minister shall then announce that the Candidates are admitted as Probationers and shall assign them to classes.

Then shall the Minister offer extemporary Prayer.

Form for Receiving Persons into the Church after Probation

On the day appointed, all that are to be received into the Church shall be called forward, and the Minister, addressing the Congregation, shall say:

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN, the Scriptures teach us that the Church is the household of God, the body of which Christ is the head; and that it is the design of the Gospel to bring together in one all who are in Christ. The fellowship of the Church is the communion that its Members enjoy one with another. The ends of this fellowship are, the maintenance of sound doctrine and of the ordinances of Christian worship, and the exercise of that power of godly admonition and discipline which Christ has committed to his Church for the promotion of holiness. It is the duty of all men to unite in this fellowship; for it is only those that "be planted in the house of the Lord" that "shall flourish in the courts of our God." Its more particular duties are, to promote peace and unity; to bear one another's burdens; to prevent each other's stumbling; to seek the intimacy of friendly society among themselves; to continue steadfast in the faith and worship of the Gospel; and to pray and sympathize with each other. Among its privileges are, peculiar incitements to holiness from the hearing of God's word and sharing in Christ's ordinances; the being placed under the watchful care of Pastors; and the enjoyment of the blessings which are promised only to those who are of the Household of Faith. Into this holy fellowship the persons before you, who have already received the Sacrament of Baptism, and have been under the care of proper leaders for six months on Trial, come seeking admission. We now propose, in the fear of God, to question them as to their faith and purposes, that you may know that they are proper persons to be admitted into the Church.

Then, addressing the Applicants for Admission, the Minister shall say:

Dearly Beloved, you are come hither seeking the great privilege of union with the Church our Saviour has purchased with his own blood. We rejoice in the grace of God vouchsafed unto you in that he has called you to be his followers, and that thus far you have run well. You have heard how blessed are the privileges, and how solemn are the duties, of membership in Christ's Church; and before you are fully admitted thereto, it is proper that you do here publicly renew your vows, confess your faith, and declare your purpose, by answering the following questions:

Do you here, in the presence of God and of this Congregation, renew the solemn promise contained in the Baptismal Covenant, ratifying and confirming the same, and acknowledging yourselves bound faithfully to observe and keep that Covenant?

Ans. I do.

Have you saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ?

Ans. I trust I have.

Do you believe in the Doctrines of the Holy Scriptures as set forth in the Articles of Religion of the Methodist Episcopal Church?

Ans. I do.

The Lord's Supper

Will you cheerfully be governed by the Rules of the Methodist Episcopal Church, hold sacred the Ordinances of God, and endeavor, as much as in you lies, to promote the welfare of your brethren and the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom?

Ans. I will.

Will you contribute of your earthly substance, according to your ability, to the support of the Gospel and the various benevolent enterprises of the Church?

Ans. I will.

Then the Minister, addressing the Church, shall say:

Brethren, these persons having given satisfactory responses to our inquiries, have any of you reason to allege why they should not be received into Full membership in the Church?

No objections being alleged, the Minister shall say to the Candidates:

We welcome you to the communion of the Church of God; and, in testimony of our Christian affection and the cordiality with which we receive you, I hereby extend to you the right hand of fellowship: and may God grant that you may be a faithful and useful Member of the Church militant till you are called to the fellowship of the Church triumphant, which is "without fault before the throne of God."

Then shall the Minister offer extemporaneous Prayer.

The Lord's Supper

[Whenever practicable, let none but the pure, unfermented juice of the grape be used in administering the Lord's Supper.]

[If et persons who have scruples concerning the receiving of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper kneeling be permitted to receive it either standing or sitting.]

[No person shall be admitted to the Lord's Supper among us who is guilty of any practice for which we would exclude a Member of our Church.]

Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper

The Elder shall say one or more of these Sentences, during the reading of which the Persons appointed for that purpose shall receive the Alms for the Poor:

LET your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. [Matt. 5. 16.]

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. [Matt. 6. 19, 20.]

Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. [Matt. 7. 12.]

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. [Matt. 7. 21.]

Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. [Luke 19. 8.]

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. [2 Cor. 9. 6, 7.]

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. [Gal. 6. 10.]

Godliness with contentment is great gain; for we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. [1 Tim. 6. 6, 7.]

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. [1 Tim. 6. 17-19.]

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. [Heb. 6. 10.]

The Ritual

To do good and to communicate forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. [Heb. 13. 16.]

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? [1 John 3. 17.]

He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again. [Prov. 19. 17.]

Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. [Psa. 41. 1.]

Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor. [Deut. 15. 11.]

After which the Elder shall give the following Invitation, the People standing:

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

Wherefore ye that do truly and earnestly repent of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbors, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways, draw near with faith, and take this Holy Sacrament to your comfort; and, devoutly kneeling, make your humble confession to Almighty God.

Then shall this general Confession be made by the Minister in the name of all those who are minded to receive the Holy Communion, both he and all the People devoutly kneeling, and saying:

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men, we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Elder say:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy great mercy hast promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto thee, have mercy upon us; pardon and deliver us from all our sins; confirm and strengthen us in all goodness; and bring us to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect:

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy name through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Elder say:

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may live and grow thereby; and that, being washed through his most precious blood, we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Then the Elder shall offer the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there, by his oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of his precious death until his coming again: hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee, and grant that we, receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body and blood; who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread; (1) and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

The Lord's Supper

(1) Here the Elder may take the plate of bread in his hand.

Likewise after supper he took (2) the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

(2) Here he may take the cup in his hand.

Then shall the Minister receive the Communion in both kinds, and proceed to deliver the same to the other Ministers, if any be present; after which he shall say:

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name, evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high! Amen.

The Minister shall then proceed to administer the Communion to the People in order, kneeling, into their uncovered hands; and when he delivereth the Bread, he shall say:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee; and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

And the Minister that delivereth the Cup shall say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

[If the Consecrated bread or wine shall be all spent before all have communed, the Elder may Consecrate more: by repeating the prayer of Consecration.]
[When all have communed, the Minister shall return to the Lord's table and place upon it what remaineth of the Consecrated elements, covering the same with a fair linen cloth.]

Then shall the Elder say the Lord's Prayer; the People kneeling, and repeating after him every petition:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

After which shall be said as followeth:

O Lord our heavenly Father, we thy humble servants desire thy Fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and thy whole Church may obtain forgiveness of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee that all we who are partakers of this Holy Communion may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Then shall be said or sung:

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will toward men! We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty!

O Lord, the only begotten Son Jesus Christ: O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Ritual

Then the Elder, if he see it expedient, may put up an extemporary Prayer; and afterward shall let the People depart with this Blessing:

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

N. B.—If the Elder is straitened for time in the usual administration of the Holy Communion, he may omit any part of the service except the Invitation, the Confession, and the Prayer of Consecration; and its administration to the Sick he may omit any part of the service except the Confession, the Prayer of Consecration, and the usual sentences in delivering the Bread and Wine, closing with the Lord's Prayer, extempore supplication, and the Benediction.

Matrimony

Form for the Solemnization of Matrimony

[The parts in brackets throughout may be used or not at discretion.]

At the day and time appointed for the Solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married—having been qualified according to law—standing together, the Man on the right hand and the Woman on the left, the Minister shall say:

DEARLY BELOVED, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy Matrimony; which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and his Church; which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought, in Cana of Galilee, and is commended by Saint Paul to be honorable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly, but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.

Into which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. Therefore if any can show just cause why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter forever hold his peace.

[And also speaking unto the persons that are to be married, the Minister shall say:

I require and charge you both, that if either of you know any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, you do now confess it: for be ye well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's word doth allow, are not joined together by God, neither is their Matrimony lawful.]

If no impediment be alleged, then shall the Minister say unto the Man:

M., wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The Man shall answer:

I will.

Then shall the Minister say unto the Woman:

N., wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love, honor, and keep him, in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The Woman shall answer:

I will.

[Then the Minister shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand, and say after him as followeth:

I, M., take thee N., to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward; for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my faith.

Then shall they loose their hands, and the Woman, with her right hand taking the Man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the Minister:

I, N., take thee M., to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my faith.]

Burial of the Dead

Then shall the Minister pray thus:

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life: send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy name; that as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant between them made, and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[If the parties desire it, the Man shall here hand a Ring to the Minister, who shall return it to him, and direct him to place it on the third finger of the Woman's left hand. And the Man shall say to the Woman, repeating after the Minister:

With this ring I thee wed, and with my worldly goods I thee endow, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.]

Then shall the Minister join their right hands together, and say:

Forasmuch as M. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have pledged their faith either to other, and have declared the same by joining of hands; I pronounce that they are husband and wife together, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Those whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder. Amen.

And the Minister shall add this blessing:

God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with his favor look upon you, and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace that ye may so live together in this life that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

Then shall the Minister offer the following Prayer:

O God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bless this man and this woman, and sow the seed of eternal life in their hearts, that whatsoever in thy holy word they shall profitably learn, they may indeed fulfill the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully on them from heaven, and bless them: as thou didst send thy blessings upon Abraham and Sarah to their great comfort, so vouchsafe to send thy blessings upon this man and this woman, that they, obeying thy will, and always being in safety under thy protection, may abide in thy love unto their lives' end, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, who at the beginning didst create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and didst sanctify and join them together in marriage, pour upon these persons the riches of thy grace, sanctify and bless them, that they may please thee both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto their lives' end. Amen.

Here the Minister may use extemporary Prayer.

Then the Minister shall repeat the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Burial of the Dead

[We will on no account whatever make a charge for burying the dead.]

Form for the Burial of the Dead

The Minister, going before the Corpse, shall say:

I AM the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. [John II. 25, 26.]

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. [Job 19. 25-27.]

We brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. [1 Tim. 6. 7; Job 1. 21.]

In the House or Church may be read one or both of the following Psalms, or some other suitable portion of the Holy Scriptures:

Psalms 39:

I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me. I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred. My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue, Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am. Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them. And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee. Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it. Remove thy stroke away from me; I am consumed by the blow of thine hand. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

Psalms 90:

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Return, O Lord, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants. O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Then may follow the reading of the Epistle, as follows:

1 Corinthians 15. 41-58:

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power: it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written,

Burial of the Dead

The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

At the grave, when the Corpse is laid in the Earth, the Minister shall say:

Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower: he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succor, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful

Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers, but spare us, Lord most holy; O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee.

Then, while the Earth shall be cast upon the Body by some standing by, the Minister shall say:

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God, in his wise providence, to take out of the world the soul of the departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; looking for the general resurrection in the last day, and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ; at whose second coming in glorious majesty to judge the world, the earth and the sea shall give up their dead; and the corruptible bodies of those who sleep in him shall be changed and made like unto his own glorious body; according to the mighty working whereby he is able to subdue all things unto himself.

Then shall be said:

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: Even so, saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labors.

Then shall the Minister say:

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Then the Minister may offer this Prayer:

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; we give thee hearty thanks for the good examples of all those thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors. And we beseech thee, that we, with all those who are departed in the true faith of thy holy name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thy eternal and everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect :

O Merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life; in whom whosoever believeth shall live, though he die, and whosoever liveth and believeth in him shall not die eternally: we meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that when we shall depart this life we may rest in him; and at the general resurrection on the last day may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receive that blessing which thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O Merciful Father, through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
